Nation Waits Johnson TV Talk Tonight

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson is expected to outline his analysis of the State of the Union in broad terms tonight and defer recommendations for specific legislation to his successor.

Close associates of the outgoing President say the only exception in his farewell address to a joint session of Congress, and to the nation via television and radio, will be to recommend that the 10 per cent income tax surcharge be extended.

By doing so he can include the $13 billion annual revenue produced by the surcharge in his budget for fiscal 1970, and thus show a small surplus when he sends his last breakdown on government spending to Congress Wednesday.

Johnson and President-elect Nixon have been maneuvering for two weeks over the issue of extending the tax, approved for one year by Congress as a check on an overheated economy and due to expire June 30.

The President, reported to believe that the tax was still needed to combat inflation, tried to get Nixon to join him in a public statement advocating extension. Nixon, who had criticized the tax surcharge during the campaign, demurred.

But after it became known Monday that Johnson would recommend continuance of the surcharge, with or without Nixon's endorsement. he apparently got private assurances of support from the president- elect.

Aides of Nixon said in New York that he would make a statement immediately after Johnson's State of the Union message, and indicated he would endorse the President's decision. There was no indication, however, that he would give the surcharge the wholehearted support that Johnson wanted.

In his address tonight, Johnson is expected to speak in broad, general terms of a necessity for revitalizing the nation's cities as a means of attacking the root of discontent that has led to racial rioting in many slum areas and to violent demonstrations by many college and university students.

What Johnson will say about status of the war in Vietnam, or the lack of progress at the Paris peace talks, remained a closely guarded White House secret.

There was speculation that he would be able to forecast a schedule of withdrawl of American troops from South Vietnam. But the rumors, which originated in Saigon, were denied Monday by the State Department. "I know of no proposal by the United States to be announced this week of phased withdrawal of American forces," said State's official spokesman, Robert J. McCloseky.

Marines Storm Viet Shore In Huge Assault Landing

First Units Of 8,200 In Allied Force

Ordered To Smash Longtime Enemy Sanctuary In South

BATANGAN PENINSULA, Vietnam (AP) — Two battalions of U. S. Marines stormed ashore here in the biggest seaborne assault since the Korean War. They were the first units of an 8,200-man allied force ordered to smash a longtime enemy sanctuary, spokesmen announced today.

The Marines landed Monday 340 miles northeast of Saigon at the scene of the first major American battle of the Vietnam war in August 1965. Also a seaborne assault, it left 56 Leathernecks dead and 150 wounded against 560 enemy killed.

U. S. spokesmen said the two battalions were pushing inland today toward a U. S. Army battalion and a South Vietnamese battalion. The three groups hope to surround an area of about eight square miles believed to hold up to 800 North Vietnamese regulars and an unknown number of guerrillas.

The operation was not announced until today for security reasons. Spokesmen said the advancing troops so far have encountered only light sniper fire and they speculated it might be some time before the cordon is closed tight enough to force the enemy to fight or surrender.

The Batangan Peninsula is only 11 miles from the U.S. Army's American Division headquarters at Chu Lai. It has been a major enemy storage area and base camp since the war with the French, and minor probes of its defenses have almost always resulted in fierce fighting.

This time the allies have come to stay and the area's 5,000 to 10,000 population will be put into the government pacification program, U.S. spokesmen said. They added nearly all peninsula residents either actively or passively support the Viet Cong and pacification efforts are expected to be "bloody and slow."

Military officials said the cordon will not be pushed too quickly. The area is honeycombed on higher ground with tunnel systems, some three layers deep. Strategists speculate it will take time for guerrillas in these tunnels to run out of food and fresh water, and the allies don't want them popping up behind them with automatic weapons.

The commander of the Army's task force on the inland side of the cordon is Brig. Gen. Howard Cooksey of Alexandria, Va.

Hickel Gets Jump Over His Critics

Circulates Defense Of Record Before Facing Senate Unit

WASHINGTON (AP) — President-elect Nixon's choice for secretary of interior, Walter J. Hickel, has taken the offensive against his critics, circulating a defense of his conservation record before facing a Senate committee where his foes can have the first, and last, word.

The Republican governor of Alaska, only man chosen for Nixon's cabinet to encounter opposition, won't be called before the Senate Interior Committee until Wednesday. But his temporary Washington office, trying to counter suspicion that Hickel is opposed to some conservation practices, issued a bulky report that detailed a long list of accomplishments in protecting natural resources and wildlife.

There were hints, too, that Nixon was coming to the aid of his nominee. Word was circulating on Capitol Hill that the president- elect would name Russell E. Train, 48-year-old head of the Conservation Foundation, as Hickel's undersecretary. Train is among the nation's foremost conservationists, and his appointment would weaken Hickel's opponents.

The first of the men who will make up the new cabinet begin testifying today before Senate committees, and all can expect to be recommended, rapidly and routinely, for confirmation by the full Senate.

But one sub-cabinet appointee, multimillionaire industrialist David Packard, probably will undergo close questioning by the Armed Services Committee about his plan to retain stock worth $300 million in his defense-oriented company.

Since 1947, the Senate has required top Pentagon officials to divest themselves of all stock in companies handling defense business. Packard's stock is in Hewlett-Packard Co., an electronics firm which handles $70 million a year in Pentagon projects. But Packard has refused to sell the stock on the ground that offering such a huge block on the market would sharply depress the price and hurt other stockholders. Instead, he proposes to put the stock in trust with all income to go for charity while he is in office.

90-Block Area Cleared

8,000 Evacuated In Lima Oil Leak

LIMA, Ohio (AP) — Firemen and Civil Defense workers checked today on the level of danger from crude oil that gushed into streets and sewers here, forcing evacuation of almost 8,000 people Monday night.

First reaction nervousness abated but firemen continued to wash down streets and flush out sewers. Military bases sent in foam to help clear sewers of several thousand gallons of crude oil.

Police and National Guard troops cleared houses and businesses in a 90-block area just south of this northern Ohio city's downtown section during the overnight danger period.

Vehicles were barred from the danger area although some plants, including a gasoline refinery, were reported taking workers back to their jobs.

There was no immediate estimate of damage from the pipe line break which turned city streets into black rivers of oil.

Mayor Christian Morris said it may be 24 to 48 hours before all affected people could return to homes and jobs.

Federal, state and local authorities called a meeting at city hall for mid-morning to assess the situation.

In the early hours of the morning, Acting Police Chief Ronald Cook said he was hopeful the situation was coming under control.

"After a daylight inspection, we may be able to lift the restrictions at noon," he said.

Buckeye Pipeline Co., owner of the 22-inch pipeline, said the lead was stopped by an excavation crew after six hours of flowing.

An Air Force firefighting team from Wright-Patterson AFB at Dayton, Ohio, brought in liquid foam for pumping into the sewers.

More than 1,800 persons spent the night in emergency overnight shelters in schools, an armory and a Salvation Army facility.

Attempted Landing At Los Angeles

4 Of 45 Killed When Jet Splashes Down In Pacific

LOS ANGELES (AP)—A Scandanavian Airlines jet splashed into the rainswept Pacific Ocean while attempting a landing at International Airport Monday night—and floated.

Of the 45 aboard, there were 30 known survivors and 4 known dead. SAS listed 9 of the remaining 11 as missing, the others as unaccounted for.

Santa Monica Hospital, near the airport, reported treating 24 persons and said all were in good condition.

As dawn broke over the Pacific, wreckage of the big DC8 still was floating—almost 12 hours after it came down into two-foot swells eight miles off shore.

In a scene of pandemonium, passengers and crew members scrambled into rubber boats or atop the wings and fuselage. Some tumbled into the sea.

An armada of small boats—Coast Guard cutters, life guard craft, and a volunteer fleet of private yachts and motor boats—conducted a search and rescue operation that lasted for hours.

Rescue boats plucked survivors from the waves or the plane, sped them ashore to ambulances that took them to the hospital.

During the night, divers determined that no bodies were inside the plane.

The jetliner, on a flight across the North Pole from Copenhagen via Seattle, Wash., hit the water with no warning, passengers said.

Due at 6:05 p.m., the jetliner had circled in the airport landing pattern for some 90 minutes due to a bad weather stackup of planes, then began its approach. It vanished from the radar screen at 7:40.

Pilot Kenneth Davis, an Englishman living in Sweden, said he made a "routine approach except for some difficulty with the landing gear."

He declined to give details, but commended his crew and the passengers for "totally heroic and disciplined action" in evacuating the plane and launching rubber boats.

Nixon Appointment Seen Irking Black Community

KEY BISCAYNE, Fla. (AP) —President-elect Nixon, who pledged that dissenters would be heard in the counsels of his administration, has encountered some—although apparently second-hand.

Leaders of six Nego organizations spent over an hour with Nixon in New York Monday and two of them asserted later that his appointments are troubling the Black community.

Nixon arrived early today in Key Biscayne, his Florida retreat, for a surprise visit expected to extend until Friday. He came alone, and planned to work alone on the final draft of his inaugural address.

Nixon is expected to spend Friday night and Saturday in New York, then fly to Washington next Sunday on the eve of his inauguration.

After Monday's New York meeting, Matthew Wright of the Black Power Conference singled out Daniel P. Moynihan, Nixon's assistant for urban affairs, for his criticism.

Wright said Moynihan is committed to "the white mind set," which emphasizes the rehabilitation of buildings instead of people in dealing with city problems.

"He has added to the possibility of disorder in the streets by his being there," Wright said.

He said he believes a Negro should have been Nixon's chief adviser on the cities.

But he acknowledged that he had not brought up this complaint during the meeting with the President-elect. He said Nixon was gracious. "He talked and we listened," Wright said.

"No strain," said Moynihan. "This is part of the pleasure and enthusiasm of the times—people speak their minds."

Robert Sample Files For 9th Council Term

Councilman Robert W. Sample of 212 W. 6th St., a Republican, filed Monday with the County Election Board to seek nomination for his ninth term as a member-at-large in the primaries May 6.

Sample, a veteran of 16 years' service, is the first incumbent Council member to enter for a new term. He was named to Council originally to complete an unexpired term as Third Ward member. Except for an absence of two years in the late 1950's, he has served since as one of the three members-at-large.

Sample is a veteran employe of the finishing mills at the Midland Division of the Crucible Steel Co. A veteran of World War II, he is a member of the First United Presbyterian Church.

Visits At Jail Halted After 'Break' Plot

The daily visiting schedule at City Jail has been canceled temporarily while officers continue an attempt to find how hacksaw blades were smuggled into the cells, leading to an attempted break that was foiled after a shakedown inspection.

Officers said they consulted Monday with Prosecuting Atty. J. Warren Bettis, but no decision has been made on whether or not charges will be filed.

Det. Capt. Kenneth Mooney said "it is impossible to determine how or when the hacksaw blades were smuggled in because of the visiting facilities provided by the city. . . "Visitors talk to prisoners through a square, barred window in a solid metal door leading into the cellblock. But the visitors are out of sight of the department's deskman, often the only person present during visiting hours.

Officers said the only reason a break was averted was that the department received an anonymous telephone tip Thursday that "there is going to be a jail break." Security measures were tightened and a shakedown was held, leading to discovery of hacksaw blades concealed in the cells.

Since the cell doors cannot be locked securely, officers bought heavy chains to padlock the Soviet Reports Launching Of Cosmonaut Into Orbit

MOSCOW (AP) — A Soviet cosmonaut was hurled into orbit today in continuation of tests of the trouble-plagued Soyuz spaceship.

Unofficial reports circulated in Moscow that another cosmonaut would play a role in the mission, possibly attempting the Soviet Union's first manned linkup. A Moscow television announcer said Air Force Lt. Col. Vladimir Shatalov, riding Soyuz-4, would carry out a "complex, responsible mission."

Col. Shatalov radioed from orbit that he was feeling fine.

Col. Vladimir Beregovoy's test of Soyuz-3 last October was the first successful mission carried out by the ship. It flew simultaneously with the unmanned Soyuz-2 craft.

Beaver suffered minor face burns.

Purchase Ceiling Raised For Lisbon Departments

LISBON—Department heads who have been limited to purchases of $25 without special permission of Council since 1962 may now spend up to $100 if the purchases are made through Mayor Clyde B. Pike.

The mayor told Council Monday night the department chiefs would like the purchasing limit raised from $25 to $100. The motion approved by Council authorizes the mayor to spend up to $100 without prior approval of council. The department heads still have the right to make necessary purchases of up to $25 without approval.

Councilman Willis Coleman informed the firemen the phrase was not used at the meeting and they should take their complaint to the paper. He reminded firemen that Council last year requested department heads to attend council meetings. "If your repesentative had been here two weeks ago, you would have known what happened," he said.

REED McCLURE of Morris E. Null and Associates of Cleveland, village engineer, reported on the two bids received for the chlorination system for the sewage treatment plant. He said a base bid of $26,620 from Rose and Whan of Lisbon compared with $39,965 of the Fowler Co. of Youngstown. The total low bid of Rose and Whan, including chlorination equipment, is $29,077.

McClure said the Board of Trustees of Public Affairs, which handles village water and sewer operations, would like to use about one-half of its funds and wondered if Council would issue bonds for the balance and let the board pay for it out of revenue.

Solicitor Joseph Baronzzi suggested that Council defer action until after the board of trustees holds its regular meeting tonight. He and Clerk - Treasurer John Ebert will attend.

Council adopted a temporary appropriation of $89,300 to cover village operations for the first three months of 1969.

Mrs. Agnes Peterson of Sunset Dr., operator of Bill's Laundry at E. Washington and S. Jefferson St., asked Council's help with a parking problem. Bill Mattix, Council president, told her he will investigate and see what can be done.

Sirhan's Trial Seen Boiling Down To Why He Shot RFK

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Both the state and the defense, by their questions to prospective jurors, have emphasized that the murder trial of Sirhan Bishara Sirhan will boil down to why the swarthy Jordanian immigrant killed Sen. Robert F. Kennedy.

"At the outset," chief defense counsel Grant B. Cooper told the jurors Monday, "you should know that there will be no denial that our client fired the shot that killed Sen. Robert F. Kennedy."

The jury's job, he said, will be to determine intent—"what was going on in his head at the time he pulled the trigger."

Kennedy was shot June 5, moments after claiming victory in the California presidential primary.

He died the next day.

Cooper reminded prospective jurors that a charge of first degree murder requires a union of both act and intent.

The defense case hinges on "diminished responsibility," a legal technicality rarely used outside California.

It holds a person may be legally sane yet still not fully responsible for his actions.

Cooper raised the point while questioning Rosa Molina, a widow and nurse who became the first juror tentatively seated after nearly two hours of questions.

He asked Mrs. Molina, graying and spectacled, if she could fairly judge Sirhan in the knowledge he shot the New York senator.

"Yes," she replied quietly.

Questions by Deputy Dist. Atty. David M. Fitts indicatd the prosecution would attack the "diminished responsibility" concept on grounds it would be difficult to prove a man's state of mind nearly eight months ago.

"This is not something that can be weighed and measured," he said.

Fitts told Mrs. Molina there may be conflicting expert evidence concerning Sirhan's state of mind on the night Kennedy was shot.

"Would you agree there would be a reasonable doubt as to what the state of mind was, since it is a hard thing to find out?" he asked.

Before the juror answered, Emile Zola Berman, one of the three defense attorneys, objected on grounds the question "presupposes there will be reasonable doubt."

"We don't accept that," he said.

Judge Herbert V. Walker sustained the defense objection.

Fitts then asked Mrs. Molina about her earlier response that she had no conscientious objections to the death penalty.

Should she sit on the jury and find the defendant guilty of first degree murder, he said, "Would you have the courage to come downstairs to the jury box and say "Sirhan, because of the murder of Sen. Kennedy, you must die in the gas chamber'?"

Again she nodded yes.

Sirhan, 24, reacted to the trial's first reference to the gas chamber by cupping his hands on the counsel table and bowing his head.

Three prospective jurors, two of them housewives, were dismissed on their contentions that serving on the jury would cause them hardship.

To be eligible for the dean's list, students must carry a minimum of 14 hours and have a 3.4 average.

Evaluating 5 Years In White House

LBJ Believes Historians Will Say That 'We Tried'

NEW YORK (AP)—President Johnson says he believes history, in evaluating his five years in the White House, will record a verdict that "we tried."

Johnson made the statement at a brilliant dinner dance in New York last night. A White House spoksman said it would be the last such formal occasion for the chief executive.

The President in effect expressed his valedictory. He said:

"I don't know what they will say next year or what they will record in a hundred years about our accomplishments, our solid achievements. But I do believe they will all say we tried."

He spoke slowly. His voice was low and deeply serious.

He was interrupted frequently by applause.

His guest list of more than 400 was bipartisan, including prominent Republicans as well as Democrats.

At the same time the President had a fine time at the party. He danced during dinner, and when the formal program ended he went on dancing until 12:10 a.m. EST.

He then flew back to Washington.

The dinner guest list was composed of Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, members of the Johnson cabinet, diplomats, educators, labor leaders, prominent businessmen, civil rights leaders and members of the performing arts.

Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller, New York Sen. Jacob K. Javits, Mayor John V. Lindsay and their wives were among the guests.

Johnson said the real test of his administration is will not be what historians say. He said the ultimate judgment would rest on whether Americans live better today.

"I really think there has been a change for the better," he said.

He pointed to what he described as improvements in the condition of Negroes, the aged, the opportunities for education among the young and the condition of "families who were poor, and men who are idle. They have begun to know the dignity of decent incomes and jobs."

Johnson noted that one of the astronauts of Apollo 8 looked at the moon from his back yard and said he wondered if he had really been there. The President smiled slightly and said:

"Perhaps the time will come when I will look back on the majesty and splendor of the presidency, and find it hard to believe that I ever occupied that office.

"But tonight, my friends, tonight beyond any peradventure of doubt, I know that I have been there. And I know that most of you were with me. And I know, with a pride that touches every fiber of my soul, that I have given it everything I had."

India Acts To Nip British Call For Pact On A-Arms

LONDON (AP) — India acted today to thwart a British call for Commonwealth backing of the pact aimed at stopping the spread of nuclear weapons.

The issue arose behind the scenes in exchanges on a communique being prepared for the 28-nation summit conference of leaders representing more than 700 million people on five continents. It is due for discussion against a high level today.

As a nuclear power and prime initiator of the nuclear non proliferation treaty, Prime Minister Harold Wilson's government wanted the communique to include a declaration that would have expressed unanimous Commonwealth backing for the controversial pact.

The British, like their American and Russian fellow signatories, maintain the dangers of nuclear war would be lessened if states with a nuclear potential would voluntarily forego the right to build such weapons.

But India, on the threshold of nuclear power itself, has been resisting the move. Senior Indian officials argued in committee that the treaty discriminates in favor of existing nuclear powers.

They maintained it aims at perpetuating a monopoly of nuclear military capacity for the great powers without imposing on them any obligation to scale down their nuclear arsenals. Thus, the Indians argued, nonnuclear nations which accept the limitations would assume a condition of eternal military inferiority without receiving in return any guarantees of greater security.

Britain and India rallied supporters for their positions. Australia and Canada were among the most important of Britain's backers, among other reasons because their security is insured by the nuclear power of their American allies.

Tanzania and Zambia lined up behind India, among other reasons because they suspect the white supremacy state of South Africa has the capacity to make and deliver nuclear weapons.

Purchase Ceiling Raised For Lisbon Departments

LISBON—Department heads who have been limited to purchases of $25 without special permission of Council since 1962 may now spend up to $100 if the purchases are made through Mayor Clyde B. Pike.

The mayor told Council Monday night the department chiefs would like the purchasing limit raised from $25 to $100. The motion approved by Council authorizes the mayor to spend up to $100 without prior approval of council. The department heads still have the right to make necessary purchases of up to $25 without approval.

COUNCIL gave local Boy Scouts permission to camp out on the northeast park of the Square during Boy Scout week Feb. 7-13. Scoutmaster Dean Senanefes of Troop 92 made the request.

Harold Adams secretary, spokesman for a group of firemen, said they wanted to find out why a Lisbon newspaper story of Council's last meeting used the phrase "padding the wage accounts" in reference to the ambulance which the firemen formerly operated.

Councilman Willis Coleman informed the firemen the phrase was not used at the meeting and they should take their complaint to the paper. He reminded firemen that Council last year requested department heads to attend council meetings. "If your repesentative had been here two weeks ago, you would have known what happened," he said.

Burke was the first in a series of motorists due to be haled before the court on charges of ignoring old parking tickets. "Meter Maids" said last week they were preparing to file 25 affidavits as the first installment of a series of charges to clean up a backlog of the tickets.

The charge against Burke said he was issued tickets last July 22, Aug. 21, Oct. 23 and Nov. 29 and another on Jan. of this year.

Pittsburgh Teacher Union Threatens To Close Schools

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The Pittsburgh Federation of Teachers says it plans to close every public school in the city if it goes on strike as threatened at midnight Wednesday.

The threat was given some added muscle Tuesday when the Allegheny County Labor Council threw its support behind the AFL-CIO teachers union.

The backing means that other school board employes who are members of unions, such as custodians, electricians and carpenters, will be reluctant to cross picket lines.

When the federation struck for 11 days last winter, custodians at first refused to fire up furnaces and the teachers and students who did show up shivered in cold classrooms.

Albert Fondy, president of the federation, said teachers would picket every school in the city.

An attorney for the board asked Common Pleas Court to enforce an injunction issued during last year's strike, contending it is still in effect. The injunction barred picketing at schools, permitting it only at the board offices.

Union and board representatives were to meet this afternoon with the State Mediation and Conciliation Service. No other meetings were planned.

Bernard J. McCormick, school superintendent, said the board and the federation were only $20,000 apart when negotiations broke off Sunday. He denied Fondy's statement that the board had withdrawn its previous offers at the Sunday meeting.

I thought we were very close," McCormick said.

The federation claims 1,200 members among the city's more than 3,000 teachers.

A rival organization, the Pittsburgh Teachers Education Association, says it will not honor federation picket lines.

Fondy says the main issues are a hospitalization plan and a terminal leave pay plan.

If the board would agree to them, he said, the strike would be called off.

If the strike starts, he said, teachers will stay out until they get all 19 demands in their $8 million package.

Officers Elected By Legion Unit At Midland Meeting

Paul Rice was elected president of the Midland Legion Club, Post 481, at its annual election Monday evening.

Others elected were John Althar, vice - president; Pat Cody, secretary, and Ermie D'Angelo, treasurer.

Directors elected for one-year terms include Thomas J. Czerpak, Felix Granito, Truman Rodfong, Emil Onuska, Stephen F. Hapach, Joe Mulach and John J. Newdomski.

Election tellers were Andy Gabor, George Rudar and Emilio Palanza.

Warning From Gen. Lemnitzer

It has been charged that generals and admirals always see potential danger to the security of their nations which calls for greater military forces with the accompanying heavy expenditures of taxpayers' money.

Similar criticism may be expected in the wake of the solemn warning by Gen. Lyman L. Lemnitzer, supreme commander of NATO, that the military balance in Central Europe has been "very significantly altered" by the Soviet aggression in Czechoslovakia.

Coupling his warning with a call for more troops and a reduction in "dual basing" of troops, he has exposed himself to attack and may expect such charges to be directed against him.

THE DUAL BASING of troops involves quartering them in the United States and flying them to bases in Europe on an emergency basis, thus slowing the gold drain on the United States.

But critics, in this instance, can hardly escape facts and it is facts that Gen. Lemnitzer has to back him up. It is a fact that Russia and its Warsaw Pack satellites invaded Czechoslovakia and now pose a greater threat, at least a more obvious threat, to the Western powers than before.

The NATO commander lays it on the line when he says: "The Soviets now have in Central Europe the largest and most readily usable combat force wielded by the Kremlin since World War II."

Is this moving toward peace? Does a buildup of this magnitude indicate, in any way, a desire for concord and harmony in the world? When the NATO forces had dwindled significantly in recent years, how could Russia claim any heed for greater defense forces?

It is dramatically clear that, despite any protestations to the contrary, the Soviet Union's buildup has as its purpose, intimidation and, in all probabiliity, aggression.

"The most formidable conventional armed forces in the world" is the way Gen. Lemnitzer describes the massive strength of the Communist nations.

We do not know the Russians' intentions in the wake of the Czechoslovakian invasion but the general has stated positively that they have the capability to strike at the heart of Europe with little or no warning. The Red divisions are there in strength, at a high state of readiness which is sustained by continuous practical exercises.

PRESIDENT TITO of Yugoslavia doesn't know the Russians' intentions either but, as a fellow Red, he has a pretty good idea about them. And he has sounded a defiant warning to the Warsaw Pact nations to keep their hands off his country.

There is a very real danger of war in the Balkans he has said, adding: "It is very difficult today to confine a local war because the world is so intimately linked.

Gen. Lemnitzer's requests should not be denied. Their fulfillment is urgent.

Making Crime Unprofitable

Charges have been filed against four suspects in three of the four armed robberies that erupted so atypically in East Liverpool in a space of little more than two weeks.

That's pretty good police work in anybody's league.

Three of the four robberies took place at the same E. 3rd St. service station and the other was at a diner about two blocks away.

Sufficient evidence has been obtained to accuse two men of a $92 holdup at the service station Dec. 30, and a 17-year-old suspect has been cited in Juvenile Court in a knife and tear gas robbery at the station last Thursday.

A Newell youth was bound over to the Grand Jury for the diner holdup Dec. 23.

While these suspects are not proven guilty, the speed of apprehension, if they are convicted, would serve as a deterrent to crimes of violance here, and East Liverpool police would have seemed to have halted this outbreak cold in its tracks. The credit goes in large part to the detective bureau, a two-man operation that made the arrests in all three cases.

When law enforcement officials work hard at proving the old saw that "crime does not pay," potential law-breakers are apt to agree and turn to more prosaic and legal pursuits.

Wisconsin Evaluates Pesticide

Hearings to be resumed in Madison, Wis., Monday on a petition to ban the use of the pesticide DDT throughout the state, is being watched closely by officials and citizens of other states.

It is believed Wisconsin is the first state to ever act administratively on a petition requesting a statewide ban on a pesticide pollutant.

The Wisconsin Department of Natural Resources is conducting the hearings sought by organized groups of outdoorsmen who hope to end the use in the state of one of the most widely used pesticides in the world.

DDT is a chlorinated hydrocarbon sprayed on fields to protect crops from insects. In recent years more and more scientists have come to the conclusion that DDT does more harm than good.

They say DDT does not break down easily and residues of the pesticide have been found in animals and man from every part of the globe. It is particularly deadly to marine life.

During hearings last month, testimony from biologists and ecologists supported the petitioners.

The battle for control of agricultural chemicals is being waged by the Environmental Defense Fund, Inc., an organization of scientists and citizens with headquarters at Brookhaven, N.Y.

The outcome of the series of hearings at Madison may not be spectacular in the sense that a ban is imposed. But the fact Wisconsin officials recognized the issue as serious enough to deserve a good airing is highly important.

It signifies the growing body of knowledge about detrimental effects of pesticides has reached a level that cries out for evaluation.

Warranties I Have

By Art Buchwald

WASHINGTON — Betty Furness, in a speech the other day, revealed something that the average consumer has known for years. It is that the warranties that come with most American products aren't worth the computer cards they're printed on.

Art Buchwald

There may be a lot of changes in 1969, but one thing you can be sure of: The American consumer is still going to get a shafting by the great free enterprise system.

The other day I went to McCarthy, Swaine and Klutznowlton, the appliance store, to return an electric can opener I had bought my wife for Christmas.

"WHY DO YOU wish to return it?" the man asked.

"Because it doesn't work."

"Did you fill out the Green Warranty Card that came with it?"

"Yes, I did."

"And what happened?"

"The can opener still didn't work."

"I see. Could you tell me how soon you filled out the Green Warranty Card after you got the electric can opener?"

"Maybe three days, a week. I'm not sure."

"But it specifically says that the Green Warranty Card must be filled out 24 hours after purchasing the appliance."

"YES, BUT SINCE it was a Christmas present we didn't open up the package until Christmas morning, and therefore we didn't see the Green Warranty Card and have a chance to fill it out for a few days as we were too busy trying to get the thing to work."

"But if you didn't fill out and mail the Green Warranty Card within 24 hours of the purchase, it's hardly our fault that the electric can opener doesn't work, is it?"

"I wouldn't say that," I said. "I think I should get a new electric can opener."

"We can't do that. The only one who has the authority to give you a new electric can opener is our warranty department, which is located in Leavenworth, Kan. But since you didn't send in the Green Warranty Card within 24 hours of purchase, they probably have no record of you buying an electric can opener in the first place."

"You have a record of it. Here's my sales slip."

"Yes, that's true. We know you purchased an electric can opener and you know you purchased an electric can opener, but Leavenworth, Kan., doesn't know."

"Look," I said, "I should think you would be worritd for the good name of McCarthy, Swaine and Klutzknowlton."

"But we're not owned by McCarthy, Swaine and Klutzknowlton any more. We were bought out by Federated Pumps and Warehouses which is a subsidiary of Drinkwater Fire and Theft, which is owned by Sable Hoisery and TV Antennas, which merged last month with MOON Orbiting Platforms, Inc."

"THAT'S GREAT, but what about a new electric can opener? give me one and I'll be on my way."

"We can't. You see, we've discontinued making electric can openers."

"How could you discontinue making them? I just bought this one for Christmas."

"That's why we discontinued them. A lot of people bought them and they didn't work. I guess our mistake was putting the head of our tire division in charge of electric can openers."

"What do I do now?"

"I'll take your name and see if there is some way of getting Leavenworth to accept your Green Warranty Card even if it was sent in late."

"And will that get me a can opener?"

"Of course not. But it will put you on our mailing list for any new appliances we plan to put out this year."

Nixon's First Big Crisis

NEW YORK — For weeks, that one-man crisis-monger, longshoremen's strike leader, Teddy Gleason, has been awaiting a phone call from the skyscraper "White House" here, now teeming with Richard Nixon's cabinet members. Presidents always call when the nation's docks are paralyzed. But the presidency is in limbo.

Even if it weren't, the call might not have come. Nor will it ever. Mr. Nixon and his Secretary of Labor, George Shultz, who never loses his cool, are determined not to go the route of John Kennedy and Arthur Goldberg. The new administration plans to be neutral even if it hurts — and the three-week-old dockers' strike which is strangling Puerto Rico and the Atlantic and Gulf Coasts while the Great Lakes are freezing over, is hurting badly — right across the nation and around the world.

A striking dockwallopers' strike always hurts. During the 1962 crisis, John Kennedy returned to Palm Beach from a conference with the British prime minister and telephoned Teddy Gleason, president of the International Longshoremen's Assn. (ILA). Gleason, glistening, rushed from the shower.

THE PRESIDENT asked him to call off the strike. As one fighting Irishman to another, Gleason said he would if he could, but he couldn't. John Kennedy's voice quivered and cut away. Gleason quivered and had to be bedded down ill for two days.

That 34-day strike cost the nation some $2 billion. The dockers went out again in 1965. Again the call came. Again the strike spurted. This time costs sky-rocketed to some $67 million a day — or about $3 billion to the national economy.

By 1968, President Johnson, already a sadder man, was wiser. He called in the prophetlike mediator, Dave Cole, long an adviser to presidents. Mr. Cole was weary of the labor-industrial jungle. But then, in effect, the President said to him:

In a two-coast waterfront strike now, the most serious question is: what happens when foreign commerce stands still? How much worse does it get? How much will it undermine the American dollar? What will happen to the world money market if this crisis lasts? This can have a chain reaction on the British pound and the franc, as well as on the dollar. This could be disastrous.

Then Lyndon Johnson told Mr. Cole to do his mightiest to avert a crippling waterfront strike, or to wash it up by January 20.

Mr. Cole had been in just such a crisis once. The steelworkers had struck the American Locomotive works at Dunkirk, N.Y. This installation was the only producer of the nickel-lined pipe needed by the Savannah, Ga., hydrogen bomb plant. Then too, the presidency was in limbo.

HARRY TRUMAN WAS about to leave. Dwight Eisenhower and his young vice president, Richard Nixon, were about to take over. Mr. Cole called in the labor and management chiefs and ended the strike.

But dockers are a different breed. They're caught up in a rapidly automating industry and their hand hook, like the buggy whip, soon will disappear.

So it does not seem that even Mr. Cole's talents and soft cajoling can settle this strike before the inauguration. What then?

Truly, aside from war and peace, this becomes Richard Nixon's first major crisis.

Already there are 1,000 unloaded freight cars bogging down the rail yards here. Thousands of other frieight carriers are immobilized all the way from Boston to New Orleans. Tens of thousands of trucks are being idled. With sugar refineries in the lead, many plants are "going down." The dock waterfront is the bottleneck of America — the jugular.

TEDDY GLEASON AND HIS terse colleagues, each from old fighting stock — Executive Vice Presisent Johnny Bowers and Vice President Tony Scotto — are out front. So are the shippers. For all of them there seems no retreat. This is the contract which will mold the industry for generations.

What will the new President Nixon and his labor minister do with their explosive inheritance? Their policy is to be neutral. Let the parties work it out or fight it out. But what of the dollar? What of layoffs? What of permanently lost foreign trade?

And if the new President asks the Congress for a special compulsory law (how can he not, since this strike already has been judged a threat to the safety and welfare of the nation?), will this whip up the controversy he has, for so long, planned to avoid?

And if he does go to the Hill, will not the new Senate whip, Sen. Edward Kennedy, second ranking man on the Senate labor committee, fight him? Of course he will.

And so, as in times of old, it comes down to high noon for the dockwallopers' veteran, Teddy Gleason, and the President of the U.S.

Mr. Nixon's first crisis is a tough one.

Who Runs The Economy?

Who is running the national economy today? The government is trying to do it, directly and indirectly, by pushing up the interest rates so as to curtail borrowing and slow down the "boom" which has brought inflation.

But the truth is there has been too much dependence on the voluntary action of individual groups in business, finance and labor, without much thought about the need for legislative restrictions such as have been applied heretofore during wartime.

When the Federal Reserve Board tightens money and banks push up their prime rate of interest to 7 per cent, the cost of borrowing tends to discourage purchases of houses and automobiles as well as the construction of new facilities by industry.

THEORETICALLY, THIS SQUEEZE on credit is expected to check the boom and halt the inflation, even though it is recognized that when credit brakes are applied too tightly, the economy is sometimes pushed into a recession, with a decline in business, a rise in unemployment and a drop in profits.

It is being argued, however, that high interest rates can be reduced overnight when healthy conditions are restored. Suggestions are being heard that, if necessary, the 10 per cent surtax, which is supposed to expire automatically June 30, could be allowed to lapse without renewal and that this would provide more spending money.

Congress probably will not act until it gets a recommendation from Mr. Nixon next spring.

Unfortunately, the rise in the cost of living and the upward movement of the wage-price spiral are not related to any single factor such as interest rates. Also, the "take-home" pay of many millions of workers in America has been adversely affected, not merely by the increase in federal taxes but by the higher taxes paid for Social Security as well as the upward trend in state and city taxes.

The average worker is concerned primarily with what he has left after all the deductions for taxes have been made by the employer. The dollar is worth far less today than it was 10 years ago. If prices continue to rise, labor's demands will naturally grow larger.

Approximately 28 billion dollars out of a budget of 184 billion is being spent to carry on the war in Vietnam. This means a considerable flow of public funds into the business world and it is one of the reasons why unemployment figures have dropped.

In order to manage the American economy in wartime, when so many extra billions of dollars are being spent by the government, it becomes necessary to apply wage-and-price controls. This is unpopular politically.

Labor unions usually object and they have a powerful voice on Capitol Hill. But if wages and prices are not controlled, they can reach unmanageable levels and the situation will not be helped very much by merely increasing interest rates on borrowed money.

Higher tax revenues, together with some reduction in federal spending, indicate a budget surplus of about $1 billion in the current fiscal year, compared with a $25 billion deficit in the previous year.

But the surtax imposed last June did not slow down the economy in the second half of 1968 and the boom began to pick up momentum, with prices rising at the fastest rate in 17 years. So the surtax did not attain its objective.

The Federal Reserve Board, which had eased credit after passage of the surtax, reversed itself in December. It reduced bank reserves available for lending and raised discount rates. As a result, commercial banks have found it necessary to increase their rates to the public — to a record of 7 per cent for "prime" loans.

WHAT IS NOT OFTEN realized is that public confidence is perhaps the most important element in managing the national economy and that, once this confidence is impaired, a recession of substantial proportions can follow.

This is really what happened in the 1930's despite the attempts to use constructive measures to overcome the adverse developments in the national economy. It is this kind of situation which officials here recognize as one of the risks involved in tampering with the economy. Thus far, there is a feeling of optimism in Washington based on a belief that the remedial measures will be effective and that slowing the economy will not bring too big a rise in unemployment.

Who is running the national economy today? The government is trying to do it, directly and indirectly, by pushing up the interest rates so as to curtail borrowing and slow down the "boom" which has brought inflation.

But the truth is there has been too much dependence on the voluntary action of individual groups in business, finance and labor, without much thought about the need for legislative restrictions such as have been applied heretofore during wartime.

When the Federal Reserve Board tightens money and banks push up their prime rate of interest to 7 per cent, the cost of borrowing tends to discourage purchases of houses and automobiles as well as the construction of new facilities by industry.

THEORETICALLY, THIS SQUEEZE on credit is expected to check the boom and halt the inflation, even though it is recognized that when credit brakes are applied too tightly, the economy is sometimes pushed into a recession, with a decline in business, a rise in unemployment and a drop in profits.

It is being argued, however, that high interest rates can be reduced overnight when healthy conditions are restored. Suggestions are being heard that, if necessary, the 10 per cent surtax, which is supposed to expire automatically June 30, could be allowed to lapse without renewal and that this would provide more spending money.

Congress probably will not act until it gets a recommendation from Mr. Nixon next spring.

Unfortunately, the rise in the cost of living and the upward movement of the wage-price spiral are not related to any single factor such as interest rates. Also, the "take-home" pay of many millions of workers in America has been adversely affected, not merely by the increase in federal taxes but by the higher taxes paid for Social Security as well as the upward trend in state and city taxes.

The average worker is concerned primarily with what he has left after all the deductions for taxes have been made by the employer. The dollar is worth far less today than it was 10 years ago. If prices continue to rise, labor's demands will naturally grow larger.

Approximately 28 billion dollars out of a budget of 184 billion is being spent to carry on the war in Vietnam. This means a considerable flow of public funds into the business world and it is one of the reasons why unemployment figures have dropped.

In order to manage the American economy in wartime, when so many extra billions of dollars are being spent by the government, it becomes necessary to apply wage-and-price controls. This is unpopular politically.

Labor unions usually object and they have a powerful voice on Capitol Hill. But if wages and prices are not controlled, they can reach unmanageable levels and the situation will not be helped very much by merely increasing interest rates on borrowed money.

Higher tax revenues, together with some reduction in federal spending, indicate a budget surplus of about $1 billion in the current fiscal year, compared with a $25 billion deficit in the previous year.

But the surtax imposed last June did not slow down the economy in the second half of 1968 and the boom began to pick up momentum, with prices rising at the fastest rate in 17 years. So the surtax did not attain its objective.

The Federal Reserve Board, which had eased credit after passage of the surtax, reversed itself in December. It reduced bank reserves available for lending and raised discount rates. As a result, commercial banks have found it necessary to increase their rates to the public — to a record of 7 per cent for "prime" loans.

WHAT IS NOT OFTEN realized is that public confidence is perhaps the most important element in managing the national economy and that, once this confidence is impaired, a recession of substantial proportions can follow.

This is really what happened in the 1930's despite the attempts to use constructive measures to overcome the adverse developments in the national economy. It is this kind of situation which officials here recognize as one of the risks involved in tampering with the economy. Thus far, there is a feeling of optimism in Washington based on a belief that the remedial measures will be effective and that slowing the economy will not bring too big a rise in unemployment.

3,300 Students Planned For In Technical Setup

By JOHN R. THOMAS
Review Staff Correspondent

COLUMBUS, Ohio — Technical education facilities in Columbiana County are being designed to accommodate 3,300 students eventually, according to the governor's task force on vocational and technical education.

The training of technical education students will be in conjunction with the Kent State University Salem branch, for which $2 million from state issue No. 1 has been earmarked.

ONCE planned capacity for technical education reaches 300 students, an additional $1 million in revenue bonds would be made available to bring capacity to 3,300 students under the task force proposals.

The task force released its report late last week. It calls for sweeping revisions in the state's educational system, with a heavy emphasis on technical and vocational education.

The Salem branch presently has 134 students enrolled in two-year technical programs, according to Joseph Wendell, supervisor of technical education.

Kent State has been offering the two-year program since the fall of 1966, when it took over operations of the Salem Technical School from the Salem city school board.

The program offers an associate degree and is operated under the Board of Regents and the Ohio Department of Education, division of vocational education.

Once the enlarged technical education becomes reality — presumably when the new KSU branch is built — the two-year technical phase will be operated under the board of regents.

ACCORDING to Wendell, recruitment for the technical education program still is a problem.

"We are still trying to get high school guidance counselors to get the word about technical education out to the students," he said.

The $2 million set aside for the Columbiana County facility is part of the $20 million earmarked for technical education in Issue No. 1, the $759 million bond issue approved by the voters last November.

Passage also allows state departments and agencies, such as the Board of Regents, to float revenue bonds for construction of technical and other higher education facilities. It would be under this provision that the $1 million in additional money would be made available once capacities in the original facility are reached.

Case Of One Youth Delayed, 2nd Penalized In Vandalism

LISBON — A continuance of arraignment until Friday at 9 a. m. was obtained this morning in Juvenile Court here for a 16-year-old Salem youth accused of flooding Salem Senior High School Dec. 13.

Moments later, Judge Louis Tobin imposed punishment on another Salem youth, 17, jointly charged with the 16-year-old with removing valves from tires on the school system's nine buses Dec. 12. The youths are in the junior class.

Parents of the older youth this morning told the court they did not wish an attorney. The boy admitted removing the valve cores "from the front tires."

"You tell me what fun that was," Judge Tobin addressed the youth. "None," he replied. He offered no explanation for the incident, which Dean Phillips of the high school said inconvenienced 1,200 students and caused an expense of between $50 and $75.

Judge Tobin ordered the youth held in detention at the County Jail until 7 a.m. Sunday. He was ordered to pay $75 toward the damages and, next Monday when he goes to school, he is to apologize to the bus drivers, to Principal Joseph Marra and to Mr. Furey in the business office.

Parents of the boy accused of flooding the school building told Judge Tobin they would like the court to appoint an attorney for him.

Judge Tobin appointed James D. Primm Jr. of Lisbon. After talking with the boy alone for a few minutes, Primm asked the court to defer arraignment "for a few days." He noted the seriousness of the charges and said he wanted more time to talk to the boy and the parents.

Judge Tobin ordered the youth placed in detention at the County Jail until Friday. The defendant had been in the Kyes Memorial Children's Receiving Home at East Palestine under custody of the County Welfare Department since he was apprehended by Salem police.

doors closed. It was discovered Sunday night that one of the newly - purchased chains had been sawed through. That led to another shakedown that uncovered two more sections of hacksaw blade.

A section of a bar about 18 inches long also was found to have been sawed out to the bullpen. But the bar still was in place, although it could have been removed in a matter of seconds. That would have given access to a space between the bars of the bullpen and the outside windows, which also are barred.

Seven blades and pieces of blades were discovered in all. Police said they were "admonished" for buying the chains for extra security "without obtaining a requisition first." A rule requiring requisitions for purchases for city departments went into effect about two weeks ago. It was issued by Auditor Lawrence Zollinger.

Four prisoners were in jail at the time. They included Willard Payne, 27, of Thompson Pl. and Charles J. Cadaret, 35, of Detroit, who are being held in lieu of $10,000 bonds while awaiting preliminary hearings on charges in connection with an armed robbery Dec. 30 at an E. 3rd St. service station.

Officers said the cell locks have not functioned properly for years and many prisoners learn how to open the doors by a slight manipulation.

Suspect Charged In Suit Thefts; Local Link Eyed

The possibility that a New Castle man arrested by Pennsylvania State Police in connection with an alleged clothing store thefts may be linked to a city entering was being investigated today by district law enforcement officials.

David D. Rich, 34, was charged Monday with the theft of $15,000 worth of suits from a men's store at New Castle. Police said they were seeking other members of a gang which took 250 suits from a Richman's Store in New Castle Saturday.

Authorities reported a burglar ring has been operating in Eastern Ohio and Western Pennsylvania so efficiently a person could order an item by brand and size in the morning and get delivery that night.

Rich was taken into custody after a manhunt along Route 422 near New Castle Sunday. Police said they halted a rental truck for a routine traffic check and Rich jumped out and ran into nearby woods. The suits were found inside the truck.

Officials were to check the possibility the gang is linked to the theft of men's clothing and $150 in cash from the Chambers Co. store here Jan. 4.

Damages Set At $300 In House Blaze

Damage was estimated at $300 in the fire which swept a stairway in the basement of the William Stauffer residence off the Sprucevale Rd., about two miles north of Calcutta, Monday night.

Twelve firemen and two trucks from the Calcutta department responded to a call at 6:10. Capt. Robert White said the blaze was confined to the staircase, though part of nearby wall paneling was removed to reach the flames.

Most of the damages resulted from smoke, White said. A one-inch booster line was used. The men and the pumper and tanker trucks remained at the scene nearly 1½ hours.

Firemen To Buy Coating For Roof

Plans were made to purchase at least 150 gallons of roof coating for the fire station when Calcutta firemen met Monday night.

Norman Neal, president, led a discussion on attendance for the Tri - State Firemen's Association dinner Feb. 27 at Midland.

3,300 Students Planned For In Technical Setup

The task force released its report late last week. It calls for sweeping revisions in the state's educational system, with a heavy emphasis on technical and vocational education.

ACCORDING to Wendell, recruitment for the technical education program still is a problem.

The $2 million set aside for the Columbiana County facility is part of the $20 million earmarked for technical education in Issue No. 1, the $759 million bond issue approved by the voters last November.

Passage also allows state departments and agencies, such as the Board of Regents, to float revenue bonds for construction of technical and other higher education facilities. It would be under this provision that the $1 million in additional money would be made available once capacities in the original facility are reached.

Case Of One Youth Delayed, 2nd Penalized In Vandalism

LISBON — A continuance of arraignment until Friday at 9 a. m. was obtained this morning in Juvenile Court here for a 16-year-old Salem youth accused of flooding Salem Senior High School Dec. 13.

Moments later, Judge Louis Tobin imposed punishment on another Salem youth, 17, jointly charged with the 16-year-old with removing valves from tires on the school system's nine buses Dec. 12. The youths are in the junior class.

"You tell me what fun that was," Judge Tobin addressed the youth. "None," he replied. He offered no explanation for the incident, which Dean Phillips of the high school said inconvenienced 1,200 students and caused an expense of between $50 and $75.

Judge Tobin ordered the youth held in detention at the County Jail until 7 a.m. Sunday. He was ordered to pay $75 toward the damages and, next Monday when he goes to school, he is to apologize to the bus drivers, to Principal Joseph Marra and to Mr. Furey in the business office.

Parents of the boy accused of flooding the school building told Judge Tobin they would like the court to appoint an attorney for him.

Judge Tobin appointed James D. Primm Jr. of Lisbon. After talking with the boy alone for a few minutes, Primm asked the court to defer arraignment "for a few days." He noted the seriousness of the charges and said he wanted more time to talk to the boy and the parents.

Judge Tobin ordered the youth placed in detention at the County Jail until Friday. The defendant had been in the Kyes Memorial Children's Receiving Home at East Palestine under custody of the County Welfare Department since he was apprehended by Salem police.

Suspect Charged In Suit Thefts; Local Link Eyed

The possibility that a New Castle man arrested by Pennsylvania State Police in connection with an alleged clothing store thefts may be linked to a city entering was being investigated today by district law enforcement officials.

David D. Rich, 34, was charged Monday with the theft of $15,000 worth of suits from a men's store at New Castle. Police said they were seeking other members of a gang which took 250 suits from a Richman's Store in New Castle Saturday.

Authorities reported a burglar ring has been operating in Eastern Ohio and Western Pennsylvania so efficiently a person could order an item by brand and size in the morning and get delivery that night.

Rich was taken into custody after a manhunt along Route 422 near New Castle Sunday. Police said they halted a rental truck for a routine traffic check and Rich jumped out and ran into nearby woods. The suits were found inside the truck.

Officials were to check the possibility the gang is linked to the theft of men's clothing and $150 in cash from the Chambers Co. store here Jan. 4.

Damages Set At $300 In House Blaze

Damage was estimated at $300 in the fire which swept a stairway in the basement of the William Stauffer residence off the Sprucevale Rd., about two miles north of Calcutta, Monday night.

Twelve firemen and two trucks from the Calcutta department responded to a call at 6:10. Capt. Robert White said the blaze was confined to the staircase, though part of nearby wall paneling was removed to reach the flames.

Most of the damages resulted from smoke, White said. A one-inch booster line was used. The men and the pumper and tanker trucks remained at the scene nearly 1½ hours.

Capt. Robert White reported that the front section of the station housing the trucks has been painted green and white — the colors used to identify department equipment when more than one department is at the scene of a blaze.

Roadblocks To Be Set Up

Chester Will Crack Down On Car License Violators

Plans were made to set up roadblocks to apprehend violators of the ordinance requiring city driver's licenses when Chester Council met Monday night.

Mayor Harold Ash said that those who have moved into Chester within the past few months are required to purchase the licenses, though it will cost only $1 for half a year. Other residents who have been operating vehicles without proper licensing will be fined the maximum, $25 and costs, and will have to purchase the permit, he said.

THE RESIGNATION of extra patrolman Robert Wilson was accepted. Wilson has been appointed a Hancock County deputy sheriff to serve under newly - elected Sheriff Lou Smoleski.

Councilman William Tuttle inquired about progress in the water situation in the Tinsonville area.

Ash informed him and the other councilmen that engineers have studied the situation and that a report is being compiled. A meeting of the firm of Cerrone and Vaughn, the Tinsonville committee headed by William Wedgewood and the Water Board will be set up soon thereafter, he pointed out.

Roy Cashdollar was appointed to serve on the Water Board to August 1971. The action was taken to return to a schedule of having one member a year taking leave from the board. The term of Donald Hissom will expire in the fall of 1969 and that of Frank Weaver in 1970.

James Jordan, city solicitor, will be consulted by Councilman Ken Williams, chairman, concerning proposed building permit legislation. Council hopes to have the revised action ready for first reading at a special meeting Saturday at 10:30 a.m. in City Hall.

The second reading of an ordinance dealing with a City Planning Commission also will be heard. The ordinance was given first reading last night.

TUTTLE also asked about action when orders for removal or repair are ignored by owners of condemned buildings.

Lee Haney, secretary of the volunteer fire department, said a representative of the state fire marshal's office has notified him that proper steps will be taken to enforce the law pertaining to such structures.

Councilman Frank DeCapio said that he has received lists of streets for sealcoating from each ward councilman and also reported that, owing to erosion on the river bank, he had contacted the West Virginia University extension office of the State Department of Natural Resources about obtaining pine or black locust trees to keep the ground from washing away.

A representative from Wellsburg told DeCapio that he will visit Council soon to expand on the idea. The trees sell for $13 to $18 per 1,000, depending on the size and type purchased.

Tuttle reported a large German Shepherd dog has been chasing children, trucks and cars in the Fairview St. area. Police will investigate and take proper action, Ash said.

In a report from the Police Department for the first six months of his term, the mayor listed 97 arrests, 88 parking tickets issued, 68 accidents and 11 criminal complaints investigated.

The annual report from the fire department was given by Haney.

Bills totaling $5,297 were paid. Remittances amounted to $344.

The next regular meeting will be Jan. 27 at 7:30 p. m. in City Hall.

The collison involved a 1960 model station wagon driven by Donald Board, 18, of 1104 Riverview St. and a 1964 two-door sedan operated by Lester Roach of rear 471 Maple St.

Board told officers he was traveling east on Pennsylvania Ave. when Roach pulled from Central Ave. and hit his auto in the right side. Roach told officers he looked both ways at the intersection, did not see any traffic, and started to pull onto the thoroughfare when his auto struck the other car. Roach was cited on the right-of-way charge.

McShane told officers he parked on the east side of Washington St. to drop off a passenger and when he pulled back onto the roadway his car was hit by Mathers' car, which was turning from E. 3rd St. onto Washington St.

Mathers told officers he was turning onto Washington St. after halting for a pedestrian who was crossing the street and his car was hit by McShane's auto.

Blair 1 Of 16 To Attend Talks On 'Title' Program

Supt. of Schools Paul Blair was one of 16 who attended a meeting in Columbus to discuss programs funded under Title III, Elementary-Secondary Education Act.

Blair, one of three superintendents from throughout the state invited said "the meeting was held in an effort to find ways and means of telling the story about Title III, ESEA, and of getting schools to simplify their programs and clarifying them to the public."

He pointed out that these programs, entirely financed by federal funds, have to be submitted for state and federal approval and that in the past only three weeks were allowed in which to submit a program for such approval.

"This is just not enough time to write a good program, and consequently school districts started copying programs from each other. This resulted in many districts not meeting their own needs," Blair explained.

Don Roberts, educational consultant for the state Title III, ESEA, told the group more emphasis is being placed at the state level now than in the past. He said money is available for projects in Ohio now, but new methods need to be found to put the educational programs into action.

Roberts said schools need to have programs approved that can be studied and observed by other districts.

Mentioned as being needed were improved and expanded vocational education programs, effective curriculum and revision, improved and expanded preschool education programs, involved programs for the handicapped and improved instructional curriculum as it relates to the major social issues such as violence, use of drugs, tobacco and alcohol and sexuality.

Dr. Virgil Blanke, professor of education at Ohio State University, served as moderator of the session.

Officers Cite Man In Crash

A 21-year-old motorist was cited on a charge of failure to yield the right-of-way after a traffic mishap Monday afternoon at Pennsylvania and Central Aves., police reported.

The collison involved a 1960 model station wagon driven by Donald Board, 18, of 1104 Riverview St. and a 1964 two-door sedan operated by Lester Roach of rear 471 Maple St.

Board told officers he was traveling east on Pennsylvania Ave. when Roach pulled from Central Ave. and hit his auto in the right side. Roach told officers he looked both ways at the intersection, did not see any traffic, and started to pull onto the thoroughfare when his auto struck the other car. Roach was cited on the right-of-way charge.

A collision at E. 3rd and Washington Sts. at 5:30 p. m. yesterday involved a 1965 sedan driven by Dean A. McShane, 63, of 308 Union St. and a 1967 auto operated by William E. Mathers, 23, of 165 Center St.

McShane told officers he parked on the east side of Washington St. to drop off a passenger and when he pulled back onto the roadway his car was hit by Mathers' car, which was turning from E. 3rd St. onto Washington St.

Mathers told officers he was turning onto Washington St. after halting for a pedestrian who was crossing the street and his car was hit by McShane's auto.

Yellow Creek Area Work Stirs Warning

Those excavating for construction work on roads in Yellow Creek Township were cautioned on proper procedure today by trustees.

A permit and posting of cash "to the satisfaction of the trustees" are required to assure restoration of a road to its original condition, the trustees pointed out.

Persons dumping refuse at the former township dump or along township roads also were warned of prosecution.

Blair 1 Of 16 To Attend Talks On 'Title' Program

Supt. of Schools Paul Blair was one of 16 who attended a meeting in Columbus to discuss programs funded under Title III, Elementary-Secondary Education Act.

Blair, one of three superintendents from throughout the state invited said "the meeting was held in an effort to find ways and means of telling the story about Title III, ESEA, and of getting schools to simplify their programs and clarifying them to the public."

He pointed out that these programs, entirely financed by federal funds, have to be submitted for state and federal approval and that in the past only three weeks were allowed in which to submit a program for such approval.

"This is just not enough time to write a good program, and consequently school districts started copying programs from each other. This resulted in many districts not meeting their own needs," Blair explained.

Don Roberts, educational consultant for the state Title III, ESEA, told the group more emphasis is being placed at the state level now than in the past. He said money is available for projects in Ohio now, but new methods need to be found to put the educational programs into action.

Roberts said schools need to have programs approved that can be studied and observed by other districts.

Mentioned as being needed were improved and expanded vocational education programs, effective curriculum and revision, improved and expanded preschool education programs, involved programs for the handicapped and improved instructional curriculum as it relates to the major social issues such as violence, use of drugs, tobacco and alcohol and sexuality.

Dr. Virgil Blanke, professor of education at Ohio State University, served as moderator of the session.

Involves Tuition Issue

Ohio Board OKs Package Of 'Far-Reaching' Plans

COLUMBUS (AP)—The Ohio Board of Education has recommended legislation which would erase tuition charges for transfer students to promote racial integration.

The proposal was part of a package adopted Monday, including far-reaching plans for compulsory kindergarten classes by 1972 and a statewide educational television network.

A state education official said the greatest impact of the free tuition suggestion, if the current Legislature goes along with it, would be at Cleveland, Cincinnati, Columbus, Toledo, Dayton, Canton, Youngstown and Akron where concentration of Negroes is heavy.

The proposal is somewhat along the lines of busing which has stirred antagonism elsewhere in the nation except that school buses would not play an important role in the process.

"The idea involves simply moving Negro children from one attendance area to the other in a large city," the informant said.

Under current Ohio law children must attend school where their parents reside or pay tuition, which ranges from $300 to $600 a year in most districts.

The new recommendation would authorize local boards to accept, without tuition payments, non-resident pupils transferred solely to promote integration.

It also would allow state payments to districts to finance the transferred students.

However, the pupils still would have to walk or use private or public transportation unless the districts volunteered to provide buses.

Ohio does not require local districts to transport elementary school pupils whose homes are within two miles of a school and there is no requirement at all to provide buses for high school students.

The recommendation of the 24-member state board came after a citizens' group from Cleveland conferred with education officials about urban school needs, but a spokesman said the proposal already was in the mill.

The board's kindergarten plan carried no price tag, nor did the recommendations for expanded vocational training and educational TV.

With an eye on strikes and school shutdowns that have occurred in other parts of the nation, the Ohio board asked the General Assembly to give "intensive consideration to any available legislative means that would assist in the orderly resolution of differences between employes and local boards of education."

Wayne E. Shaffer, a state board member of Bryan, called on the board to determine a policy which would clarify whether school and municipal boundaries should coincide.

For more than 10 years the board has held that area annexed for municipal purposes also must be transferred for school purposes — unless the losing district can show that the action would be damaging or unreasonable.

But last fall the board decided a school district transfer which apparently divorced transfers from the question of municipal annexation. It said at the time transfers must be considered only on educational merits.

Bills Stack Up In Assembly

Moore Puts Last Touches On Legislature Address

CHARLESTON, W. Va. (AP) — Members of the 59th Legislature shuffled through growing stacks of bills today while Gov. Arch Moore put the finishing touches on a speech in which he was expected to outline his legislative program.

There was no firm indication when the new Republican chief executive would deliver his address to a joint session but it appeared the speech would come late this week or next Tuesday.

There has been speculation that Moore, who took office Monday, was withholding his address to enable the House of Delegates to pass bills raising the salaries of top elected and appointed officials.

—:—

THE MEASURES were stalled in the House Friday when an attempt to process them quickly failed. One of the bills, if passed last Friday, would have given Moore a $10,000 raise, to $35,000 a year, before he took office Monday.

Passage of the two now, however, would affect the salaries of only appointed department heads, State Supreme Court justices and elected officials in future administrations.

The Senate passed both bills Thursday.

Today's calendar included House and Senate sessions in the afternoon, after morning committee meetings.

The salary bills were scheduled to receive routine first reading, the first of three, on the House floor.

If they meet no additional difficulty, they could be approved by the lawmakers and sent to the governor on Thursday.

—:—

BILLS scheduled for second reading in the House and Senate today included a measure that would permit married women to sue for loss of consortium.

Committees meeting today included Agriculture and Natural Resources, Finance, Health and Welfare, Industry and Labor, and Judiciary in the House; and Finance and Judiciary in the Senate.

Legislators sifting through Moore's 28-minute inaugural address Monday found little to reflect his legislative program.

The governor used general terms in stressing the need for improvements in education, mental health facilities and highways.

He did not discuss into his campaign promise to raise teachers' salaries $1,000 across the board.

Programs concerning education, currently in committee, have recommended various raises for teachers, and various scales. These, along with other school - related proposals, are certain to draw much attention during the duration of the 60-day session.

Wife Of Judge Buried; Clues To Killer Sought

EUCLID, Ohio (AP) — Marlene Steele, 37-year-old wife of Municipal Judge Robert Steele, was buried Monday as authorities pressed a search for clues to her slayer.

The body of Mrs. Steele, mother of two, was found by her husband in their home here early last Thursday. She had been shot to death.

Steele disclosed in an interview Monday that both he and his wife had received anonymous telephone calls during the week before the slaying. He said they consisted of "nothing but breathing" but that he had paid little attention to them at the time.

Police said they have interviewed more than 100 friends and acquaintances of the Steeles but have turned up no positive clues as to the identity of the slayer.

Judge Steele said he found his wife's body after hearing some shuffling sounds in their home and then "popping" sounds.

Police used a metal detector Monday in grounds around the Steele home in an effort to find the murder weapon. They found nothing.

Bridge To Stay Closed Because Of Repair Costs

COVINGTON, Ky. (AP)—One of five bridges across the Ohio River and linking Cincinnati with northern Kentucky cities may remain closed because it would cost $3.5 million to put it in shape even to handle limited traffic for 30 years.

It is the C&O bridge between Cincinnati and Covington. It was closed several weeks ago because of structural defects.

William Hazelrigg, Kentucky highway commissioner, said the $3.5 million cost would include widening the structure from two lanes to four.

"It does not seem feasible to rehabilitate the structure at this cost" said Guy Van Sant, a highway engineer.

The engineers said an alternative would be to replace the bridge at a cost of $16 million.

The highway department also has said that four of the five bridges are obsolete and should be examined carefully. The four still in operation carry more than 150,000 motor vehicles daily.

Highways Director Reports

Ohio Has Completed 78% Of Its Interstate Roads

COLUMBUS (AP) — Ohio has completed 1,201 miles of interstate roads or 78 per cent of its allotted system.

P. E. Masheter, director of the Department of Highways, said Monday in an annual report that 118 miles were opened last year and another 167 miles are under construction.

An additional 170 miles has engineering or right of way acquisition under way.

Altogether, the state will have 1,538 miles of super-highways by the early 1970s.

Interstates are financed with 90 per cent federal and 10 per cent state and local money.

Masheter's report to Gov. James Rhodes said more than $432 million in road construction contracts was awarded in 1968 despite a number of delays and fund cutbacks.

He cited "frequent project delays due to federal regulations on equal employment opportunities, federal cutbacks in funds and labor disputes."

As the year ended the highway agency had nearly 500 projects going at an aggregate cost of nearly $1 billion — excluding right of way and engineering.

Masheter indicated the department's labor turnover of 31 per cent last year was one of the soft spots.

"The Bureau of Personnel was primarily concerned with the increasingly tight labor market prevailing in Ohio during 1968," he said. "Recruitment efforts were expanded accordingly."

Masheter also reported:

— Ohio's road building program during the year provided about 118,000 jobs.

— The Highway Department disposed of 2,200 buildings on right of way property, demolishing most and selling 500.

— The agency produced the nation's first bridge inspection manual, which spells out inspection and testing procedures for an estimated 100,000 bridges.

The Ohio Legislature ordered the manual after the collapse of the West Virginia-owned and maintained Silver Bridge over the Ohio River at Gallipolis in December 1967.

Would Launch New Railroad Era

'Maiden Run' Scheduled For 160 MPH Rail Train

WASHINGTON (AP)—A modern-day Casey Jones will mount to his engine in Washington's Union Station Wednesday, toot the whistle, open the throttle and, hopefully, launch the railroad industry into a new era.

He'll be piloting the Metroliner, first of the sleek, bullet-like trains capable of up to 160 miles per hour and designed to compete directly with airlines serving Washington, New York and Boston.

For the railroads, it's a multimillion dollar gamble that they can lure back Easterners who have deserted them for planes, buses.

Perhaps symbolically, officials handling special invitations are making certain all passengers realize the maiden run will be one-way. It is being made for VIPs and newsmen, with regular service to start on a limited basis the ntxt day.

Just who the congressmen, federal officials and business executives will be is a closely guarded secret at the moment.

But whoever they are, they aren't likely to get much of an impression of the speed.

The new train, powered by electric tracton motors, can make the 226-mile run to New York almost an hour faster than the current railroad average of about four hours. But the ceremonial trip will take more than six hours, delayed by speeches at the regular stops of Baltimore, Wilmington, Del., Trenton and Newark, N.J., and Philadelphia, where there will be a leisurely lunch.

The first Metroliner will be added to regular service Thursday with additional trains being fed into the system until there is a full compliment of 22 a day.

Besides a smoother ride in more modern surroundings, the train will offer public telephone service for passengers.

The three-hour trip from Washington to New York will compare with jet air service. Although it is only 40 minutes flying time, airport access problems at both ends, plus landing and takeoff delays can stretch the trip to three hours or more.

The fare for the first metroliner will be $12.75 between New York and Washington one way, $14 in peak hours. The current conventional fare is $10.65. The air fare is $18.

A joint project by the Penn Central Railroad and the U.S. Department of Transportation to test varying schedules, fares and other features will start after 28 cars are in service. There will be four to eight cars per train.

For the time being, the Metro liner will run only between Washington and New York. A gas turbine powered train called the Turbo will go into service soon on the other leg of the Northeast Corrider— between Boston and New York. It, too, will have a top speed of 160 m.p.h.

Court Will Name Counsel For Pair Cited In Robbery

Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff said Monday he will ask Common Pleas Court at Lisbon to appoint counsel to represent Willard Payne, 27, of No. 8 Thompson Pl., and Charles J. Cadaret, 35, of Detroit, who face charges in connection with an armed robbery Dec. 30 at the Humble Oil Co. service station at E. 3rd St. and Broadway.

Payne and Cadaret were due preliminary hearings Monday, but since they appeared without counsel the judge continued both cases until Thursday. Cadaret is accused of taking $92 in the holdup and Payne of "aiding and abetting" Cadaret by driving the getaway car.

Both men were returned to jail in default of $10,000 bonds.

Payne also was arraigned on an affidavit accusing him of "stealing and wrongfully appropriating" two oil company credit cards belonging to Hazel Adkins last July 10. The second charge against Payne also was continued until Thursday.

The boys and their leaders pitched tents in the snow Friday evening and broke camp Sunday afternoon. They cooked their meals in the open. Simulated search and rescue missions highlighted a program of Scouting skills.

The Shawnee District, the northern half of the council's territory, canceled its "polar bear" scheduled for next weekend because of the flu.

Dog Obedience Classes Offered By Club In Area

Demonstrations are being prepared in dog obedience by the newly-organized Keystone All Breed Training Club.

The nonprofit organization was incorporated in Beaver County, the first of its kind there.

Officers are: Elden Metzger of Beaver, president; Gertrude J. Gillen of Beaver, vice president; Darlene Prince of Aliquippa, secretary; Joy Lucarelli of New Brighton, recording secretary, and Gladys Rosensteel of Rochester, treasurer.

The board of directors includes the officers, plus the following: Prince, coordinator of training, Robert Rosensteel of Rochester, Jane Johnson of Negley and Delores Basile of New Brighton.

The purpose of the club "is to promote dog obedience by teaching dog owners to train their animals, thereby making dogs better pets, better companions, better neighbors and controllable in public, rather than being nuisances and a menace to the community."

Classes will be conducted weekly. The club itself will meet bi-monthly. Membership is now open, but is not mandatory in order to train a dog, Metzger pointed out. Obedience classes are open to the public, he said.

Alcoa Boosts Prices Almost Across Board

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The Aluminum Co. of America has announced a price increase almost across the board.

If it sticks in the market, it will be the second in eight months.

Industry sources said they expected it to stand because of a recently firm demand for aluminum and the probability the federal government — now between administrations—will not bring any public pressure.

Spokesmen for the president's Council of Economic Advisors had no comment Monday when Alcoa announced the board increase.

It followed Kaiser's announcement Sunday of an increase of one cent a pound on ingots and 5 per cent on some fabricated lines.

Alcoa matched the ingot increase and broadened the fabricating increase to include nearly all lines. It emphasized that sheet and plate—by far the biggest item in shipments at 37 per cent — were included. They had not been included in Kaiser's announcement, nor in Reynolds' announcement it would follow Kaiser.

The increase of 5 per cent applies to all orders received after Friday and all shipments after Feb. 15.

Members of the Beaver Crest 4-H Club will begin making scarves at the Feb. 14 meeting.

The club met Friday at the home of Mrs. Pat Trotter of Beaver Crest Estates, at which time Sheryl Croxall and Tammy Henthorn were appointed to the demonstration committee and Teresa Steele, Jo Lynn Johnston and Beth Foster to the community project committee.

Masheter's report to Gov. James Rhodes said more than $432 million in road construction contracts was awarded in 1968 despite a number of delays and fund cutbacks.

He cited "frequent project delays due to federal regulations on equal employment opportunities, federal cutbacks in funds and labor disputes."

As the year ended the highway agency had nearly 500 projects going at an aggregate cost of nearly $1 billion — excluding right of way and engineering.

Masheter indicated the department's labor turnover of 31 per cent last year was one of the soft spots.

"The Bureau of Personnel was primarily concerned with the increasingly tight labor market prevailing in Ohio during 1968," he said. "Recruitment efforts were expanded accordingly."

Masheter also reported:

— Ohio's road building program during the year provided about 118,000 jobs.

— The Highway Department disposed of 2,200 buildings on right of way property, demolishing most and selling 500.

— The agency produced the nation's first bridge inspection manual, which spells out inspection and testing procedures for an estimated 100,000 bridges.

The Ohio Legislature ordered the manual after the collapse of the West Virginia-owned and maintained Silver Bridge over the Ohio River at Gallipolis in December 1967.

Would Launch New Railroad Era

'Maiden Run' Scheduled For 160 MPH Rail Train

WASHINGTON (AP)—A modern-day Casey Jones will mount to his engine in Washington's Union Station Wednesday, toot the whistle, open the throttle and, hopefully, launch the railroad industry into a new era.

He'll be piloting the Metroliner, first of the sleek, bullet-like trains capable of up to 160 miles per hour and designed to compete directly with airlines serving Washington, New York and Boston.

For the railroads, it's a multimillion dollar gamble that they can lure back Easterners who have deserted them for planes, buses.

Perhaps symbolically, officials handling special invitations are making certain all passengers realize the maiden run will be one-way. It is being made for VIPs and newsmen, with regular service to start on a limited basis the ntxt day.

Just who the congressmen, federal officials and business executives will be is a closely guarded secret at the moment.

But whoever they are, they aren't likely to get much of an impression of the speed.

The new train, powered by electric tracton motors, can make the 226-mile run to New York almost an hour faster than the current railroad average of about four hours. But the ceremonial trip will take more than six hours, delayed by speeches at the regular stops of Baltimore, Wilmington, Del., Trenton and Newark, N.J., and Philadelphia, where there will be a leisurely lunch.

The first Metroliner will be added to regular service Thursday with additional trains being fed into the system until there is a full compliment of 22 a day.

Besides a smoother ride in more modern surroundings, the train will offer public telephone service for passengers.

The three-hour trip from Washington to New York will compare with jet air service. Although it is only 40 minutes flying time, airport access problems at both ends, plus landing and takeoff delays can stretch the trip to three hours or more.

The fare for the first metroliner will be $12.75 between New York and Washington one way, $14 in peak hours. The current conventional fare is $10.65. The air fare is $18.

A joint project by the Penn Central Railroad and the U.S. Department of Transportation to test varying schedules, fares and other features will start after 28 cars are in service. There will be four to eight cars per train.

For the time being, the Metro liner will run only between Washington and New York. A gas turbine powered train called the Turbo will go into service soon on the other leg of the Northeast Corrider— between Boston and New York. It, too, will have a top speed of 160 m.p.h.

Court Will Name Counsel For Pair Cited In Robbery

Municipal Judge Samuel M. Chertoff said Monday he will ask Common Pleas Court at Lisbon to appoint counsel to represent Willard Payne, 27, of No. 8 Thompson Pl., and Charles J. Cadaret, 35, of Detroit, who face charges in connection with an armed robbery Dec. 30 at the Humble Oil Co. service station at E. 3rd St. and Broadway.

Payne and Cadaret were due preliminary hearings Monday, but since they appeared without counsel the judge continued both cases until Thursday. Cadaret is accused of taking $92 in the holdup and Payne of "aiding and abetting" Cadaret by driving the getaway car.

Both men were returned to jail in default of $10,000 bonds.

Payne also was arraigned on an affidavit accusing him of "stealing and wrongfully appropriating" two oil company credit cards belonging to Hazel Adkins last July 10. The second charge against Payne also was continued until Thursday.

'Patch' Received By Polar Bears

LISBON — The 108 boys who attended the Cherokee District "polar bear" camp last weekend at Camp McKinley here earned a colorful shoulder patch.

Robert Mellinger of East Liverpool was camp director as chairman of camping activities for Cherokee — the southern half of Columbiana Council, Boy Scouts of America.

The boys and their leaders pitched tents in the snow Friday evening and broke camp Sunday afternoon. They cooked their meals in the open. Simulated search and rescue missions highlighted a program of Scouting skills.

The Shawnee District, the northern half of the council's territory, canceled its "polar bear" scheduled for next weekend because of the flu.

Dog Obedience Classes Offered By Club In Area

Demonstrations are being prepared in dog obedience by the newly-organized Keystone All Breed Training Club.

The nonprofit organization was incorporated in Beaver County, the first of its kind there.

Officers are: Elden Metzger of Beaver, president; Gertrude J. Gillen of Beaver, vice president; Darlene Prince of Aliquippa, secretary; Joy Lucarelli of New Brighton, recording secretary, and Gladys Rosensteel of Rochester, treasurer.

The board of directors includes the officers, plus the following: Prince, coordinator of training, Robert Rosensteel of Rochester, Jane Johnson of Negley and Delores Basile of New Brighton.

The purpose of the club "is to promote dog obedience by teaching dog owners to train their animals, thereby making dogs better pets, better companions, better neighbors and controllable in public, rather than being nuisances and a menace to the community."

Classes will be conducted weekly. The club itself will meet bi-monthly. Membership is now open, but is not mandatory in order to train a dog, Metzger pointed out. Obedience classes are open to the public, he said.

Alcoa Boosts Prices Almost Across Board

PITTSBURGH (AP) — The Aluminum Co. of America has announced a price increase almost across the board.

If it sticks in the market, it will be the second in eight months.

Industry sources said they expected it to stand because of a recently firm demand for aluminum and the probability the federal government — now between administrations—will not bring any public pressure.

Spokesmen for the president's Council of Economic Advisors had no comment Monday when Alcoa announced the board increase.

It followed Kaiser's announcement Sunday of an increase of one cent a pound on ingots and 5 per cent on some fabricated lines.

Alcoa matched the ingot increase and broadened the fabricating increase to include nearly all lines. It emphasized that sheet and plate—by far the biggest item in shipments at 37 per cent — were included. They had not been included in Kaiser's announcement, nor in Reynolds' announcement it would follow Kaiser.

The increase of 5 per cent applies to all orders received after Friday and all shipments after Feb. 15.

HINTS FROM HELOISE

Why Wash 'Em? Toss 'Em

By HELOISE CRUSE

LISTEN FOLKS: Here's a hint I thought up which you might like to try . . .

Know those frozen dinner aluminum trays? Even if you don't make your own dinners for your deep freeze, save 'em!

Heloise

I was so tired last night that I just plain didn't want to wash dishes ('specially those pots and pans).

I was going to bake a piece of leftover ham so I studed it with cloves, then mixed brown sugar with pineapple juice and poured this over the ham.

This long bake job always makes for a messy pan.

So . . . I took one of those trays, used my potato masher and mashed the little dividers down and had a darling throw away bake pan!

Lots of things can be baked in these, gals, if you mash that tray divider. The pan may cup a little, but who cares?

Never wash a real crusty pan when you don't have to. Right?

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: Instead of wearing swim goggles when I paint ceilings, I have a better idea:

I bored a hole about three or four inches deep in the end of a broom handle. Then I removed the paint roller from its short handle and inserted the roller into the end of the broom handle, and just rolled away.

No ladder required. Stand on the floor and enjoy painting your ceiling.

Roll the excess paint off the roller before painting with it and there are very few drips. (Of course, it is well to protect your floors with newspapers, just in case.)

You will be finished in no time at all. I was.

FANNIE SMITH.

DEAR HELOISE: This wonderful tip on laundering blue jeans came from our next-door neighbor:

After laundering the jeans in the usual way, she makes a heavy-medium starch and puts lots of bluing into it until it is a deep blue color. Then she starches the jeans!

When dry, those worn places will all be colored blue again. Of course, when the jeans are washed, some of the bluing comes out, but then you starch them again in the same manner. It's wonderful for keeping blue jeans looking fresh.

Thanks again for all your wonderful tips.

MRS. S. DILLINGHAM.

-:-

Have you ever thought of making up a strong concentrate of bluing and non-plastic starch? You can put it in a spray bottle and (instead of starching the whole blue jean) just starch the knees where they are faded and need it when you iron them. It works like a charm. (And, ladies, believe me, bluing is practically indelible because I spilled some on a carpet and couldn't get it out!

HELOISE.

DEAR HELOISE: Here's a simple idea for making small, individual mothball bags for the closet:

Take the plastic open-mesh bags that potatoes and onions are packed in and cut them into several small sections.

After putting in the desired amount of mothballs, secure the ends of the mesh with rubber bands. You can hang these directly on your coat hangers in several different places in your closet.

MRS. TONY ROSETTI.

Letter Of Laughter

DEAR HELOISE: On a recent vacation, we happened to see a railroad train with a flat car filled with wood chips. Since it was traveling at a high rate of speed, we could not figure out why the chips were not blowing.

A local resident told us that they covered them with your nylon net . . .

SAM BLAKELEY.

DEAR HELOISE: When your dress has buttons with those centers that are always dropping out — you know the kind I mean — just give the buttons about two coats of clear nail polish.

I have tried this and my dress has been both washed and drycleaned several times and nary a "drop-out" have I had.

The DOCTOR Says

Asbestos Dust May Cause Cancer

Because of the surprisingly varied uses to which asbestos has been put, there is a growing interest among doctors in the lung disease called asbestosis. This is one of a group of diseases of the lungs caused by the inhalation of various dusts. In asbestosis, the inhalation of asbestos dust over a period of years causes permanent deposits in the lungs of needlelike asbestos crystals. The irritation they produce is mechanical rather than chemical and the result is fibrosis or scarring of the lungs.

Dr. Brandstadt

THIS IN ITSELF can be serious, but even more serious is the fact that the victims have a death rate from lung cancer eight times that of men who are not exposed to the dust. Their death rate from cancer of the digestive tract is also higher than the expected rate. A further study revealed that among asbestos workers, those who smoke cigarettes have a death rate from lung cancer 92 times as great as that of men who neither smoke nor work with asbestos.

—:—

IN ADDITION to asbestos weavers, those in danger include auto mechanics, brake manufacturers, carpenters, clutch manufacturers, filter makers, manufacturers of floor tiling, insulators, miners, roofers, shingle makers, shipbuilders and steam fitters. Even "sidewalk engineers" who enjoy watching new skyscrapers go up are at some risk because appreciable amounts of asbestos, though not visible to the naked eye, have been shown to be present in the surrounding air at these locations. And children are not immune to the danger. Some kindergartens have been known to supply raw asbestos for tots to mix with water to make "dough."

—:—

UNLIKE THE usual case of tuberculosis, the lesions caused by the inhalation of dust are not localized but are diffused throughout the lungs. Since there is no effective treatment for asbestosis, prevention is essential. All workers with asbestos in any form should be protected by well - constructed vents to carry the dust away or they should wear respirators. Those who smoke should quit and those who don't should never start.

Please send your questions and comments to Wayne G. Brandstadt, M.D., in care of The Review. While Dr. Brandstadt cannot answer individual letters, he will answer letters of general interest in future columns.

Indicted For Fraud

MIDDLETOWN, Ohio (AP)—The Butler County Grand Jury has indicted former Trenton mayor Harry Stretcher on an embezzlement charge in conwith an $8,336 shortage in public funds a few years ago. The indictment Monday came after a state examiner's report, which also indicated the money had been repaid.

Stop-And-Frisk Bill Slated For Ohio's Assembly

COLUMBUS (AP) — The so-called stop-and-frisk bill, certain to generate controversy again, is expected to be introduced in the Ohio Legislature within the next few days.

The proposal allows a police officer to stop, question and search anyone he believes may be in some process of committing a crime.

A version in 1967 reached the Ohio House, then was returned to committee and died.

Stop-and-frisk has pitted law enforcement agencies and civil liberties advocates against each other.

State Rep. George E. Mastics, R-Fairview Park, who will be one of the bill's co-sponsors, said Monday a U.S. Supreme Court decision has cleared the way for the validity of a stop-and-frisk statute.

The nation's high court held in a case—handed down after the Ohio version failed to pass and-frisk actions were legal.

The proposal does not compel a person under suspicion to answer an officer's questions, but it permits the policeman to search the suspect if he thinks anyone is in danger.

Innocent Pleas Given In Student Dope Case

ATHENS, Ohio (AP) — Seven Ohio University students pleaded innocent in Athens County Common Pleas Court Monday to charges of possession of narcotics. They were indicted a week ago after having been arrested in a raid on a farm house.

The raid by the sheriff was last November.

Over the past four years, the volume of Canada's economic assistance to developing countries has tripled.

Injunction Hearing Set In Strike Threat

CINCINNATI (AP) — A hearing was to be held in Common Pleas Court here today on validity of a temporary injunction which halted a threatened strike Sunday midnight of 1,800 non-uniformed Cincinnati city employes.

Judge Ralph B. Kohnen issued the injunction but the municipal workers' union challenged it on the grounds it should not have been issued until a strike actually had started.

The strike was called as a result of a dispute over wages in a new contract.

Celebrations Coming Up

NEW YORK (AP) — If you think life is going to get back to a dull routine now that the holidays are over, you couldn't be more mistaken. There are plenty of jolly celebrations yet to come.

According to Chases' Calendar of Annual Events, there are 1,471 occasions to celebrate in 1969, ranging from Give Your Girl a Pearl Day through "D for Decency" Week and on to Horse Health Month.

National Wildlife Week is March 16 to 22, but judging from the list of observations on tap, life will be pretty wild for the nation the entire year.

For instance, almost before you get all the pine needles out of the carpet, along will come Sandy Shoes Festival Jan. 17 to 26 in Fort Pierce, Fla.

Then, on a more serious note, there's National "Pay Your Bills" Week Feb. 3 to 7. At this somber time it would be well to look forward to National Laugh Week April 1 to 9 and American Comedy Week April 7 to 15. These should put you in the proper frame of mind for Mother-in-Law Day, slated April 13.

If you want to keep your cool, you'll have a whole month for that. February is Frozen Potato Month, and it will give you something to chew on while waiting for Asparagus Week Nov. 16 to 22.

Internation Pickle Week comes May 22 to 31, but if you don't go for pickles you can hang around until National Green Olive Week Sept. 4 to 12.

In fact, the whole year is garnished with snacktime. There's National Peanut Week March 5 to 15, National Popcorn Week Oct. 24 to 31 and National Pretzel Week Oct. 27 to Nov. 3.

Luckily the National Indigestion Season is scheduled Nov. 27 to promoting relief for the indigestion period which follows the Thanksgiving turkey and extends through New Years Day.

Believe it or not, there really is an Old Home Week. It's held in New Hampshire Aug. 16 to 23.

But what I am personally most looking forward to is Respect Elders Day set for Dec. 31. However, I think it would have a much greater chance of success if it came before, instead of after, Christmas.

Personalities In The News

GAINESVILLE, Fla. (AP) — Barbara Finlayson, 25, is blonde, pretty, a school teacher and pregnant.

She is challenging an Alachua County school board ruling that teachers who become pregnant in the first semester cannot teach during the second semester.

Mrs. Finlayson's husband, Gordon, is a University of Florida professor. One of his colleagues, Law Professor Robert Furlong, agreed to handle a formal protest against the school board's policy, saying:

"It is probably invalid from a legal view point and it is certainly invalid from a social view point."

HONOLULU, Hawaii (AP) — Adm. John S. McCain, commander in chief of U. S. Pacific forces, suffered a mild stroke without paralysis Monday, a spokesman for his headquarters reported.

McCain, who will be 58 Friday, was admitted to Tripler Army hospital here at 2:40 a.m. Monday.

The spokesman said McCain suffered a stroke. McCain's condition is stable, the spokesman said.

McCain took over the top military job in the Pacific July 31. He spent Christmas with the troops in Vietnam and returned here Dec. 30.

LONDON (AP) — The Sultan of Zanzibar, whose word was law on his African island until he was overthrown by a revolution five years ago, is being sued for nonsupport by his wife.

A London High Court is hearing the lawsuit, which began when the sultan, 38, summoned his lissome, 28-year-old wife, Princess Anisa, and declared three times in Moslem fashion: "I divorce thee."

Not only did the attempted divorce fail to work, but Princess Anisa took him to court for nonsupport.

—:—

LONDON (AP)—The British movie censor has scissored a scene in "Rosemary's Baby" involving a nude Mia Farrow and Satan.

Director Roman Polanski said the authorities were perturbed because "there is quite a lot of this kind of witchcraft going on in Britain."

—:—

ROME (AP)—Furniture belonging to Linda Christian, widow of Actor Tyrone Power, was impounded by a court to satisfy a shopowner's claim that she had failed to pay for two fur coats.

The amount of money involved was not disclosed.

TV Theft Ring Believed Broken

PAINESVILLE, Ohio (AP) — Police and sheriff's deputies believe they have broken up a television theft ring in this area which apparently has been in operation for more than a year.

Four men were taken into custody Monday and police said they had stolen more than $80,000 worth of television sets in 100 burglaries in Lake, Geauga, Cuyahoga and Ashtabula counties.

Wilson Kelly, Eastlake police chief, said most of the burglaries were in private homes and the specialties were color television sets.

The four being held are Ray Gillette, 24, of Mentor; Larry Gramm, 26, of Eastlake; Charles Javis, 26, of Timberlake and Boyde Burnette, 23, of Willoughby.

Victoria, British Columbia, was founded in 1843 as a Hudson's Bay Company trading post known as Fort Camosun. Later, it renamed in honor of Queen Victoria.

Company's Head To Be Arraigned In Vaccine Case

CLEVELAND (AP) — James Henry Rand III, whose firm developed an experimental cancer vaccine, was to be arraigned today in U.S. District Court on three counts each of mail fraud and stock manipulation.

Rand was indicted Dec. 13 by a federal grand jury.

The indictment charged that Rand, 55, and his company, the Rand Development Corp., knowingly made false statements about the vaccine's "amazing results" in attacking cancer and saving terminal cancer patients.

A conviction on all six counts could send Rand to prison for 21 years and cost him a $45,000 fine.

The indictment claims that Rand placed news stories in a Cleveland newspaper and Pageant Magazine about the vaccine to raise the market price of Rand Development Corp. Class B stock.

The indictment says Rand used the stock to secure a loan for a financially unsound subsidiary, Universal Fiber Glass Corp. of Two Harbors, Minn.

A U.S. District Court in Cleveland called a halt to the manufacture of the vaccine in February 1967.

The nation's high court held in a case—handed down after the Ohio version failed to pass and-frisk actions were legal.

The proposal does not compel a person under suspicion to answer an officer's questions, but it permits the policeman to search the suspect if he thinks anyone is in danger.

Innocent Pleas Given In Student Dope Case

ATHENS, Ohio (AP) — Seven Ohio University students pleaded innocent in Athens County Common Pleas Court Monday to charges of possession of narcotics. They were indicted a week ago after having been arrested in a raid on a farm house.

The raid by the sheriff was last November.

Over the past four years, the volume of Canada's economic assistance to developing countries has tripled.

Injunction Hearing Set In Strike Threat

CINCINNATI (AP) — A hearing was to be held in Common Pleas Court here today on validity of a temporary injunction which halted a threatened strike Sunday midnight of 1,800 non-uniformed Cincinnati city employes.

Judge Ralph B. Kohnen issued the injunction but the municipal workers' union challenged it on the grounds it should not have been issued until a strike actually had started.

The strike was called as a result of a dispute over wages in a new contract.

Celebrations Coming Up

NEW YORK (AP) — If you think life is going to get back to a dull routine now that the holidays are over, you couldn't be more mistaken. There are plenty of jolly celebrations yet to come.

According to Chases' Calendar of Annual Events, there are 1,471 occasions to celebrate in 1969, ranging from Give Your Girl a Pearl Day through "D for Decency" Week and on to Horse Health Month.

National Wildlife Week is March 16 to 22, but judging from the list of observations on tap, life will be pretty wild for the nation the entire year.

For instance, almost before you get all the pine needles out of the carpet, along will come Sandy Shoes Festival Jan. 17 to 26 in Fort Pierce, Fla.

Then, on a more serious note, there's National "Pay Your Bills" Week Feb. 3 to 7. At this somber time it would be well to look forward to National Laugh Week April 1 to 9 and American Comedy Week April 7 to 15. These should put you in the proper frame of mind for Mother-in-Law Day, slated April 13.

If you want to keep your cool, you'll have a whole month for that. February is Frozen Potato Month, and it will give you something to chew on while waiting for Asparagus Week Nov. 16 to 22.

Internation Pickle Week comes May 22 to 31, but if you don't go for pickles you can hang around until National Green Olive Week Sept. 4 to 12.

In fact, the whole year is garnished with snacktime. There's National Peanut Week March 5 to 15, National Popcorn Week Oct. 24 to 31 and National Pretzel Week Oct. 27 to Nov. 3.

Luckily the National Indigestion Season is scheduled Nov. 27 to promoting relief for the indigestion period which follows the Thanksgiving turkey and extends through New Years Day.

Believe it or not, there really is an Old Home Week. It's held in New Hampshire Aug. 16 to 23.

But what I am personally most looking forward to is Respect Elders Day set for Dec. 31. However, I think it would have a much greater chance of success if it came before, instead of after, Christmas.

Personalities In The News

GAINESVILLE, Fla. (AP) — Barbara Finlayson, 25, is blonde, pretty, a school teacher and pregnant.

She is challenging an Alachua County school board ruling that teachers who become pregnant in the first semester cannot teach during the second semester.

Mrs. Finlayson's husband, Gordon, is a University of Florida professor. One of his colleagues, Law Professor Robert Furlong, agreed to handle a formal protest against the school board's policy, saying:

"It is probably invalid from a legal view point and it is certainly invalid from a social view point."

HONOLULU, Hawaii (AP) — Adm. John S. McCain, commander in chief of U. S. Pacific forces, suffered a mild stroke without paralysis Monday, a spokesman for his headquarters reported.

McCain, who will be 58 Friday, was admitted to Tripler Army hospital here at 2:40 a.m. Monday.

The spokesman said McCain suffered a stroke. McCain's condition is stable, the spokesman said.

McCain took over the top military job in the Pacific July 31. He spent Christmas with the troops in Vietnam and returned here Dec. 30.

LONDON (AP) — The Sultan of Zanzibar, whose word was law on his African island until he was overthrown by a revolution five years ago, is being sued for nonsupport by his wife.

A London High Court is hearing the lawsuit, which began when the sultan, 38, summoned his lissome, 28-year-old wife, Princess Anisa, and declared three times in Moslem fashion: "I divorce thee."

Not only did the attempted divorce fail to work, but Princess Anisa took him to court for nonsupport.

—:—

LONDON (AP)—The British movie censor has scissored a scene in "Rosemary's Baby" involving a nude Mia Farrow and Satan.

Director Roman Polanski said the authorities were perturbed because "there is quite a lot of this kind of witchcraft going on in Britain."

—:—

ROME (AP)—Furniture belonging to Linda Christian, widow of Actor Tyrone Power, was impounded by a court to satisfy a shopowner's claim that she had failed to pay for two fur coats.

The amount of money involved was not disclosed.

TV Theft Ring Believed Broken

PAINESVILLE, Ohio (AP) — Police and sheriff's deputies believe they have broken up a television theft ring in this area which apparently has been in operation for more than a year.

Four men were taken into custody Monday and police said they had stolen more than $80,000 worth of television sets in 100 burglaries in Lake, Geauga, Cuyahoga and Ashtabula counties.

Wilson Kelly, Eastlake police chief, said most of the burglaries were in private homes and the specialties were color television sets.

The four being held are Ray Gillette, 24, of Mentor; Larry Gramm, 26, of Eastlake; Charles Javis, 26, of Timberlake and Boyde Burnette, 23, of Willoughby.

Victoria, British Columbia, was founded in 1843 as a Hudson's Bay Company trading post known as Fort Camosun. Later, it renamed in honor of Queen Victoria.

At Monday Meeting

Wellsville Board Acts On Lunches, Adult Education

A free and reduced-cost lunch program and fees for adult education were approved at Monday night's meeting of the Wellsville board of education.

To become eligible for the lunch program, interested families must file an application with the building principal. The application then will be turned over to the school nurse for evaluation in line with guidelines set up by the Ohio Department of Eduaction's school food service program.

Each child receiving free or reduced-price luncheons will be included in the regular cafeteria program, it was pointed out.

FEES FOR the adult education classes per person follow: Sewing, $5, 2 hours for six weeks; typing, $5, 1½ hours a night for 10 weeks, and arts and crafts $10, 2 hours a night for 10 weeks. Teachers will be: Sewing, Mrs. Margaret Doyle and Mrs. Catherine McCollam; typing, Mrs. Donald Rogers; arts and crafts, Mrs. Elizabeth Boyd. Instructors will be paid $5 an hour.

Supt. Donald A. Lowe informed the board a committee of educators from the North Central Association will visit high school classrooms Feb. 4 and 5 for an evaluation of all areas of the educational program. A copy of the report will be given each member of the board. The evaluation is required every seven years by the Ohio Education Association.

School administrators comprising the committee will be Dr. Frank Paulowski, Steubenville, chairman; Jack Baker, Southern Local; Walter Bouve, East Palestine; Robert Carter, United Local; Clarence Means, Toronto; George Nace, Lisbon; Ted Taylor, Beaver Local; George Trombitas, Leetonia, and a teacher from East Palestine.

MEMBERS of the curriculum committees were announced by Supt. Lowe. They are: Mathematics — Grade 1, Mrs. Ruth Gibson and Mrs. Emma Lewis; grade 2, Miss JoAnn VanDyke and Mrs. Nelle Piatt; grade 3, Miss Mildred Metts and Mrs. Anna McDole; grade 4, Mrs. Saundra Baker and Miss Mary Beatty; grade 5, Mrs. Gladys Kozora and Mrs. Ruth Firschkorn; grade 6, Mrs. Margaret Robinett and Miss Doris Nelson; grade 7, Raymond J. Strong Opposition Expected

Annexation Bill Slated To Face Ohio's Assembly

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A bill to make it easier for large cities in annexing surrounding territory will face the 108th Ohio General Assembly within the next two weeks.

State Sen David S. Holcomb (R-Dayton) said Monday night he is preparing the proposal for introduction. He expects it to run into strong opposition.

"While it will make it easier for the large cities, it will hurt some of the smaller ones when they try to take in neighboring areas," Holcomb said.

Holcomb, however, indicated he expects strong support for the measure from legislators in Ohio's metropolitan areas.

The legislature, meanwhile, was to reconvene at 1:30 p.m. today for another in a long series of organizational sessions.

Although some bills will be introduced in both houses, State Rep. Robert E. Netzler (R-Laura) said it will probably be four weeks until the House gets into serious legislative matters.

A Republican House caucus today is expected to approve Mrs. Doris Jones of Columbus for the 62nd District Seat to replace her late husband, Robert.

Elected to another term last November, Jones died the following month of injuries suffered in an auto wreck. Jacob A. Shawan, an early contender for the seat, withdrew as a candidate yesterday.

Miss Marigene Valiquette resigned from the House last night — after she had already been appointed to the Senate to replace retiring Minority Leader Frank King. She is a Toledo attorney.

The house, in routine business, adopted new rules, hired employes, and set their salaries. The salaries ranged from $19,552 for an executive secretary to $3,993 for a hostess.

Ten bills were introduced in the Senate, including three measures from Secretary of State Ted W. Brown. One would approve branch registration in cities where boards of elections have their main offices.

Another proposal, sponsored by State Sen. Charles J. Carney (D-Youngstown) would make illegal the distribution of unsolicited credit cards.

The bill would exempt the recipient from liability for any use of the card not authorized by him. It also would provide a maximum $500 fine for each card distributed.

Sale Is Planned By Golden Aires

A rummage sale in early spring was discussed when the Golden Aires met Monday afternoon in the community center at the Salvation Army.

Sylvester McCord presided when an auditing committee was appointed. It includes Russ Brubaker, Ray Hadfield and John Schneidmiller.

Lunch was served 25. Games and cards followed.

A silent auction will be held at next Monday's meeting at 1. Miss Mildred Rose and Mrs. Katherine Cain are in charge of the entertainment.

Architect Benjamin Latrobe claimed Virginia's great houses were shabbier than European mansions because of the remoteness of 18th-century America. "An unlucky boy," he wrote, "breaks two or three squares of glass. The glazier lives 50 miles off. An old newspaper supplies their place in the 'mean time.' Before the 'mean time' is over, the family gets used to the newspaper and think no more of the glazier."

150 Attend Kaycee Event

Some 150 attended a kick off dinner Sunday marking the 50th anniversary of Midland Knights of Columbus, Council 2005.

Samuel Dambrocia, Pennsylvania state deputy, spoke on "The Youth Of Our Country" at the event at the council rooms.

Joseph Glennon of Midland, the only charter member present, was recognized.

Remarks were given by William Marm, state treasurer; John Borro, 59th district deputy who represented all area councils; Joseph Meehan, chairman of state Catholic charities, and Nile Wain, executive secretary of the Midland Area Chamber of Commerce, who represented all local organizations.

Fr. Aderbert Williams, pastor of St. Christine's Catholic Church at Industry, offered a prayer for deceased members of the Council. Fr. Stephen Burdis, pastor of Presentation Catholic Church, and Fr. John Corbett, former assistant pastor at Presentation, gave remarks.

Albert Nutz, grand knight, gave the welcome. Emeric Davis, past grand knight, was toastmaster.

Past grand knights honored included Eugene Rutherford, Dr. F. J. Benedict, Dominic Scalera, Peter Benedict, William Verzella, Davis, Louis Bruno, Angelo Cellini and Anthony Martell.

The dinner was given in appreciation to all who helped organize the local council.

Patricia Wyche Places Third In District Event

Patricia Wyche, a senior at East Liverpool High School, placed third in the VFW 6th District Voice of Democracy program Saturday at Post 693 in Canton. She represented East Liverpool Post 66.

Michael Joy of Canton South High School, repesenting the Canton post, finished first and will be the district's contestant at the midwinter conference in Akron Jan. 25.

Second place went to Laura Capp of St. Aquinas High School, representing Post 1036 of Alliance.

Twenty-nine students competed.

The purpose of the program is to help the young people "better appreciate the heritage of freedom," Richard Carter, district chairman, said. Mrs. Donna Rohr was Auxiliary district chairman.

Melvin Boggs of VFW Post 9285 of Wellsville and Patricia Slack, Auxiliary president, were among those attending.

Courts May Get Ohio Hassle On Political Party

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A hassle over who heads the American Independent Party in Ohio may be headed for the courts.

Franklin County Prosecutor C. Howard Johnson said Monday "it isn't clear exactly what they want" but he has been asked by Louis Molnar of Cuyahoga Falls to file a suit against a Columbus group headed by Richard Kochensparger of Grove City.

Molnar said the suit would involve a possible violation of state laws prohibiting the use of corporation funds for political purposes.

Kochensparger headed the Ohioans for Wallace during the presidential campaign of George C. Wallace and Molnar claims the title of "state chairman" belongs to him.

Adding to the confusion was a statement by G. Sage Lyons in Mobiile, Ala., that he did not believe anyone could claim to head the party in Ohio. Lyons, who coordinated activities in the state during the Wallace campaign, said there could be no legally recognized governing body until officers are elected.

Strong Opposition Expected

Annexation Bill Slated To Face Ohio's Assembly

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A bill to make it easier for large cities in annexing surrounding territory will face the 108th Ohio General Assembly within the next two weeks.

State Sen David S. Holcomb (R-Dayton) said Monday night he is preparing the proposal for introduction. He expects it to run into strong opposition.

"While it will make it easier for the large cities, it will hurt some of the smaller ones when they try to take in neighboring areas," Holcomb said.

Holcomb, however, indicated he expects strong support for the measure from legislators in Ohio's metropolitan areas.

The legislature, meanwhile, was to reconvene at 1:30 p.m. today for another in a long series of organizational sessions.

Although some bills will be introduced in both houses, State Rep. Robert E. Netzler (R-Laura) said it will probably be four weeks until the House gets into serious legislative matters.

A Republican House caucus today is expected to approve Mrs. Doris Jones of Columbus for the 62nd District Seat to replace her late husband, Robert.

Elected to another term last November, Jones died the following month of injuries suffered in an auto wreck. Jacob A. Shawan, an early contender for the seat, withdrew as a candidate yesterday.

Miss Marigene Valiquette resigned from the House last night — after she had already been appointed to the Senate to replace retiring Minority Leader Frank King. She is a Toledo attorney.

The house, in routine business, adopted new rules, hired employes, and set their salaries. The salaries ranged from $19,552 for an executive secretary to $3,993 for a hostess.

Ten bills were introduced in the Senate, including three measures from Secretary of State Ted W. Brown. One would approve branch registration in cities where boards of elections have their main offices.

Another proposal, sponsored by State Sen. Charles J. Carney (D-Youngstown) would make illegal the distribution of unsolicited credit cards.

The bill would exempt the recipient from liability for any use of the card not authorized by him. It also would provide a maximum $500 fine for each card distributed.

Architect Benjamin Latrobe claimed Virginia's great houses were shabbier than European mansions because of the remoteness of 18th-century America. "An unlucky boy," he wrote, "breaks two or three squares of glass. The glazier lives 50 miles off. An old newspaper supplies their place in the 'mean time.' Before the 'mean time' is over, the family gets used to the newspaper and think no more of the glazier."

Courts May Get Ohio Hassle On Political Party

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A hassle over who heads the American Independent Party in Ohio may be headed for the courts.

Franklin County Prosecutor C. Howard Johnson said Monday "it isn't clear exactly what they want" but he has been asked by Louis Molnar of Cuyahoga Falls to file a suit against a Columbus group headed by Richard Kochensparger of Grove City.

Molnar said the suit would involve a possible violation of state laws prohibiting the use of corporation funds for political purposes.

Kochensparger headed the Ohioans for Wallace during the presidential campaign of George C. Wallace and Molnar claims the title of "state chairman" belongs to him.

Adding to the confusion was a statement by G. Sage Lyons in Mobiile, Ala., that he did not believe anyone could claim to head the party in Ohio. Lyons, who coordinated activities in the state during the Wallace campaign, said there could be no legally recognized governing body until officers are elected.

East Liverpool Drops To Tenth In State Cage Rankings

Sports Whirled

By TURK PIERCE
Review Sports Editor

Warren Western Reserve High School is an amazing complex.

The Raiders boast a large, heated swimming pool, and a swimming meet was conduted concurrently with the basketball game Friday night. Greenhouses, for use of botany students are adjacent to the school. One flaw in the outstanding building is the poor lighting in the gym. Western Reserve uses the sodium vapor or "blue" lights similar to those at Aliquippa.

East Liverpool's Bud Manes, the coach at Theil, was present at Friday's game at Warren. Manes was impressed with the Potter team, and is especially interested in Bill Montgomery. He reports that Joe Massey is not scoring so much this season because he has had to take over the playmaking duties. Manes cited Mitchell Jones for having a lot of potential. He added that Jones, a notoriously poor foul shooter at East Liverpool, has improved to about 60 per cent from the line. Saturday night Theil lost to Washington and Jefferson, coached by East Liverpool's Jim Harris, 60-54. Massey scored 14 and Monaca's Terry Evans hooped 20 for the Prexies.

WELLSVILLE'S Tom McClain had a good weekend for the Adelbert Red Cats. The freshman cager scored 22 points and grabbed 16 rebounds Friday night as Adelbert whipped Bethany 89-64 for its first win in eight starts. Saturday night Allegheny topped Adelbert 75-62, but McClain scored 28 points, 18 in the first half, and again had 16 rebounds.

BEAVER LOCAL'S Bill Barnhart scored 20 points for the Youngstown State varsity Saturday night as the Penguins downed Alliance 105-84.

MIDLAND'S SIM HILL, who ranked in the top 10 nationally in scoring last season with a 27-point average, is 30th so far this season. Hill is hitting 24.3 a game for West Texas State. Dave Sorenson of Ohio State ranks 28th. Gary Nelson of Duquesne is eighth in field goal percentage and Larry Lewis of St. Francis second in rebounding to Spencer Haywood of Detroit.

St. Francis is fifth in rebounding as a team. Duquesne is 10th in defense, Cincinnati 12th, Kent State 15th and Dayton 17th. Duquesne is fifth in average scoring margin.

FORMER major league stars Bob Feller and Ted Kluszewski will highlight the third annual Ohio U. baseball clinic to be held March 7 - 8 at Athens. The clinic is designed for Ohio high school coaches.

Columbus East Maintains First

East Liverpool dropped from a tie for eighth to 10th in this week's Associated Press Ohio High School basketball poll despite winning two games over the weekend.

The Potters were passed by unbeaten Canton Lehman, which jumped from 17th to ninth. Columbus East, on a 33-game winning streak, widened its first place lead.

Zanesville moved into second, replacing Toledo Libbey. Canton Lehman was the only newcomer in the top 10, replacing Marion Harding.

Granville, 12-0, maintained the top spot in the Class A poll. Sebring dropped from a tie for second to fourth as the Trojans lost their first game. Unbeaten Bridgeport was a newcomer to the Top 10, placing seventh. West Muskingum also moved into the select circle, in tenth place. Collins Western Reserve, Westfall and Sandusky St. Mary, the latter tied for tenth last week, dropped out.

North Lima is 11th, Springfield Local 12th, Tiltonsville 13th, Mt. Pleasant 14th and Brilliant 15th. Champion is 11th and Boardman 14th in Class A. Boardman moved up from 16th despite losing its first game of the season.

Top Three Teams Same

Duquesne 12, Bucks 13, In Latest College Poll

By The Associated Press

The rankings of the nation's top college basketball teams went through a major unheaval from fourth place down in Monday's poll of the nation-wide Associated Press board of newsmen and sportscasters, but UCLA, North Carolina and Santa Clara still headed the list in that order.

Tough and torrid UCLA kept its solid hold on the top by receiving all 40 first place votes.

The Bruins, led by Lew Alcindor, raised havoc in the Northwest last week by trouncing Oregon 93-64 and Oregon State 83-64 on consecutive nights. The Bruins now have an 11-0 record.

North Carolina and Santa Clara had no trouble holding on to second and third places, but Illinois, ranked fourth last week, tumbled to eighth by losing to Purdue 94-84. Davidson, with a healthy 10-1 record, moved into fourth place.

Kentucky, 9-2 through games of last weekend, moved up from seventh to fifth and Kansas, which had held that spot, plummeted to tenth. The big drop followed Missouri's 47-46 upset of Kansas Saturday.

St. John's of New York stayed on the winning path by downing Seton Hall 66-45 and moved from eighth to sixth. Villanova held onto ninth place and New Mexico State, one of the remaining few unbeaten major teams in the nation with a 14-0 record, moved from tenth up to seventh.

LaSalle, in 11th place with 225 points, heads the second division and is in position to challenge for a ranking in the Top Ten.

The major shifts in the balance of the list saw Detroit, Louisville and Drake drop out of the Top Twenty, and Colorado, Baylor and Tulsa move in.

Beavers Decision Oak Glen

Beaver Local won the first six bouts to build up an almost insurmountable 22-0 lead and hung on for a 27-18 win over Oak Glen in a wrestling match at Beaver Local last night.

Terry Serago started the action with a wild 13-10 decision over Calvin Price that was featured by a switching battle in the second period. Price led 9-6 at one point before Serago rallied to win in the last period.

Van Possage racked up a pin and then freshman Don Neville scored numerous near-falls in whipping state champ Don Lowther 25-6. Gale Williams won by forfeit and then Jim Bowersock posted a tough 6-3 win over Gary Masters. Jack Moore beat Lynn Harrell by the same score before Joe Nemith broke the ice for the Golden Bears with a pin. Lew Brown retaliated with a pin for the Beavers, but from there on it was all Oak Glen.

Darl Roberts decisioned Fred Brown 6-3 and Jan Harpold, leading 6-1 after two periods, got a forfeit win when John Sines injured his back. Ed Fields of Oak Glen scored a pin to close out the match.

Winning coach Paul Jackson was pleased by the aggressiveness shown by his team. "All we practice is takedowns", he said, and the Beavers got the takedown in almost every match.

Beaver Local also won the reserve match 10-7 and Bruce Possage pinned Bob Powell in 1:23 in an exhibition match at 95 pounds.

Midland, Oak Glen Play At Home Tonight

Tonight's area scholastic cage schedule shows four games, three in Pennsylvania and one in West Virginia.

Oak Glen, 3-5, hosts Weirton Madonna, 4-3. The teams have played no common opponents, but the Blue Dons have played a tougher schedule, with losses to Bellaire St. John's, Triadelphia and Steubenville Central. Jim Carnes is the top scorer on Jack McDevitt's team with 17.4 points a game.

Midland goes after its fourth straight Section 6 win when it hosts New Brighton. The Lions are having an off year, being 1-2 in section play and 3-8 overall, and the Leopards are expected to continue to roll. George Green is scoring 15.0 points a game to pace Ed Olkowski's team, while Greg Vanlier adds 14.6 and Howard Leak 11.4. Joe Druzak and Dave McDowell pace Bill Edwards' New Brighton team.

Section 17 contests find South Side visiting Center and Carnegie at Western Beaver. The Rams, 2-8, are not expected to bother Center, 8-4, one of the top Class B teams in the WPIAL. The Trojans are 2-0 in league play, South Side 1-1. Steve Gulasey and Ken Wicek pace Sarge Alberts' team, while Doug Williamson hits 11.0 a game for the Rams.

Western Beaver, 0-2, in the league and 3-7 overall, has a good chance to post its first section victory over the Tartans, 0-2 in the league and 1-8 overall. Carnegie has lost eight in a row since an opening win over South Fayette. Chuck Kelker at 12.0 and John Petchel at 11.6 pace Don Lenz' Golden Beavers.

East Star Camp Misses Joe Namath

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) —Joe Namath, the toast of pro football, is the most wanted man on Coach Wally Lemm's list.

Lemm had to run his American Football League All-Stars through their first practice without a quarterback Monday.

Namath was apparently still celebrating his New York Jets' 16-7 victory over the Baltimore Colts in the Super Bowl.

Lemm, who coaches the Houston Oilers, is mighty happy to have Broalway Joe on his side.

"Wasn't he fantastic?" Lemm said of Namath's performance against the Colts.

Coach Hank Stram of Kansas City, who had his AFL West All-Stars together for their opening practice, also talked of Namath and the Jets' upset which took the AFL out of second class status.

"What makes Namath different from most pro quarterbacks is his speed of retreat into the pocket before passing," Stram said. "Most pro passers go back nine yards. Namath goes 12. That's a heck of a difference."

Stram faces the problem of rushing Namath, a job that proved too much for AFL West stars last year — the first time the All-Star game was played in the Gator Bowl here. Namath engineered a 25-24 East victory, throwing two touchdown pass and plunging one yard for the winning score in the last minute.

Namath feels the need for a fourth operation on his left knee to mend an inflamed tendon in the joint. Jets physician Dr. James A. Nichols feels an operation could be hazardous. He believes rest will take care of the knee, and he will take another look at it before making final decision on the requested surgery.

Leetonia Five Regains Area Scoring Lead

Leetonia regained the lead in scoring among area basketball teams, holding a one point edge over Wellsville.

The Bears are hitting 68.2 to 68.1 for the Tigers. Midland is next at 67.5. East Liverpool continues to lead in defense with a 45.7 average. Midland is next at 49.2.

Jack Mills of United Local continues to lead in scoring, though his average slipped to 22.8. Rob Carter of Southern, who hit 55 points over the weekend, jumped from eighth to second, 2.3 points back of Mills. Joe Lewis of East Palestine replaced Jim Carnes of Oak Glen in the Top 10.

Ray Callahan Grid Coach At Cincinnati

By BYRON BEARD
Associated Press Writer

CINCINNATI (AP) — Ray Callahan, the new head man for football at Cincinnati, is a coach who likes to work with individual players rather than letting assistants do it.

And that's not the only difference from Homer Rich, his predecessor who quit Monday to become athletic director at the University fo North Carolina.

Callahan is given to loud warwhoops — to express delight, to register dissatisfaction, or to make certain a directive reached its target — a sharp contrast to the quiet ways of Rice.

"At home he's the same way," says Essie Lee Callahan, who married him 16 years ago when he was a sophomore at the University of Kentucky playing under Paul Bryant.

There are four Callahan children — Kenneth Ray, 11; Karen Lee, 8; Terri Lynn, 5, and Toni Kay, 3.

After Callahan graduated from Kentucky he moved into high school coaching and won the "Kentucky High School Coach of the Year Award" in 1962.

The next year he went back to his alma mater as an assistant coach for the Wildcats, where he served on the staff with Rice, who also was a KU assistant.

Callahan came to Cincinnati with Rice in 1967, and their first team won three and dropped six. Last year the Bearcats finished with a 5-6-1 season, the best for Cincinnati since 1964.

Callahan said he expected to keep the staff intact.

East Liverpool Drops To Tenth In State Cage Rankings

Sports Whirled

By TURK PIERCE
Review Sports Editor

Warren Western Reserve High School is an amazing complex.

The Raiders boast a large, heated swimming pool, and a swimming meet was conduted concurrently with the basketball game Friday night. Greenhouses, for use of botany students are adjacent to the school. One flaw in the outstanding building is the poor lighting in the gym. Western Reserve uses the sodium vapor or "blue" lights similar to those at Aliquippa.

East Liverpool's Bud Manes, the coach at Theil, was present at Friday's game at Warren. Manes was impressed with the Potter team, and is especially interested in Bill Montgomery. He reports that Joe Massey is not scoring so much this season because he has had to take over the playmaking duties. Manes cited Mitchell Jones for having a lot of potential. He added that Jones, a notoriously poor foul shooter at East Liverpool, has improved to about 60 per cent from the line. Saturday night Theil lost to Washington and Jefferson, coached by East Liverpool's Jim Harris, 60-54. Massey scored 14 and Monaca's Terry Evans hooped 20 for the Prexies.

WELLSVILLE'S Tom McClain had a good weekend for the Adelbert Red Cats. The freshman cager scored 22 points and grabbed 16 rebounds Friday night as Adelbert whipped Bethany 89-64 for its first win in eight starts. Saturday night Allegheny topped Adelbert 75-62, but McClain scored 28 points, 18 in the first half, and again had 16 rebounds.

BEAVER LOCAL'S Bill Barnhart scored 20 points for the Youngstown State varsity Saturday night as the Penguins downed Alliance 105-84.

MIDLAND'S SIM HILL, who ranked in the top 10 nationally in scoring last season with a 27-point average, is 30th so far this season. Hill is hitting 24.3 a game for West Texas State. Dave Sorenson of Ohio State ranks 28th. Gary Nelson of Duquesne is eighth in field goal percentage and Larry Lewis of St. Francis second in rebounding to Spencer Haywood of Detroit.

St. Francis is fifth in rebounding as a team. Duquesne is 10th in defense, Cincinnati 12th, Kent State 15th and Dayton 17th. Duquesne is fifth in average scoring margin.

FORMER major league stars Bob Feller and Ted Kluszewski will highlight the third annual Ohio U. baseball clinic to be held March 7 - 8 at Athens. The clinic is designed for Ohio high school coaches.

BRUCE DAL CANTON, Pirate rookie pitcher from Burgettstown, will marry Helene Horbitz there Feb. 15.

Columbus East Maintains First

Zanesville moved into second, replacing Toledo Libbey. Canton Lehman was the only newcomer in the top 10, replacing Marion Harding.

Granville, 12-0, maintained the top spot in the Class A poll. Sebring dropped from a tie for second to fourth as the Trojans lost their first game. Unbeaten Bridgeport was a newcomer to the Top 10, placing seventh. West Muskingum also moved into the select circle, in tenth place. Collins Western Reserve, Westfall and Sandusky St. Mary, the latter tied for tenth last week, dropped out.

Top Three Teams Same

Duquesne 12, Bucks 13, In Latest College Poll

By The Associated Press

The rankings of the nation's top college basketball teams went through a major unheaval from fourth place down in Monday's poll of the nation-wide Associated Press board of newsmen and sportscasters, but UCLA, North Carolina and Santa Clara still headed the list in that order.

Tough and torrid UCLA kept its solid hold on the top by receiving all 40 first place votes.

The Bruins, led by Lew Alcindor, raised havoc in the Northwest last week by trouncing Oregon 93-64 and Oregon State 83-64 on consecutive nights. The Bruins now have an 11-0 record.

North Carolina and Santa Clara had no trouble holding on to second and third places, but Illinois, ranked fourth last week, tumbled to eighth by losing to Purdue 94-84. Davidson, with a healthy 10-1 record, moved into fourth place.

Kentucky, 9-2 through games of last weekend, moved up from seventh to fifth and Kansas, which had held that spot, plummeted to tenth. The big drop followed Missouri's 47-46 upset of Kansas Saturday.

St. John's of New York stayed on the winning path by downing Seton Hall 66-45 and moved from eighth to sixth. Villanova held onto ninth place and New Mexico State, one of the remaining few unbeaten major teams in the nation with a 14-0 record, moved from tenth up to seventh.

LaSalle, in 11th place with 225 points, heads the second division and is in position to challenge for a ranking in the Top Ten.

The major shifts in the balance of the list saw Detroit, Louisville and Drake drop out of the Top Twenty, and Colorado, Baylor and Tulsa move in.

Beavers Decision Oak Glen

Beaver Local won the first six bouts to build up an almost insurmountable 22-0 lead and hung on for a 27-18 win over Oak Glen in a wrestling match at Beaver Local last night.

Terry Serago started the action with a wild 13-10 decision over Calvin Price that was featured by a switching battle in the second period. Price led 9-6 at one point before Serago rallied to win in the last period.

Van Possage racked up a pin and then freshman Don Neville scored numerous near-falls in whipping state champ Don Lowther 25-6. Gale Williams won by forfeit and then Jim Bowersock posted a tough 6-3 win over Gary Masters. Jack Moore beat Lynn Harrell by the same score before Joe Nemith broke the ice for the Golden Bears with a pin. Lew Brown retaliated with a pin for the Beavers, but from there on it was all Oak Glen.

Darl Roberts decisioned Fred Brown 6-3 and Jan Harpold, leading 6-1 after two periods, got a forfeit win when John Sines injured his back. Ed Fields of Oak Glen scored a pin to close out the match.

Ray Callahan Grid Coach At Cincinnati

By BYRON BEARD
Associated Press Writer

CINCINNATI (AP) — Ray Callahan, the new head man for football at Cincinnati, is a coach who likes to work with individual players rather than letting assistants do it.

And that's not the only difference from Homer Rich, his predecessor who quit Monday to become athletic director at the University fo North Carolina.

Callahan is given to loud warwhoops — to express delight, to register dissatisfaction, or to make certain a directive reached its target — a sharp contrast to the quiet ways of Rice.

"At home he's the same way," says Essie Lee Callahan, iwho married him 16 years ago when he was a sophomore at the University of Kentucky playing under Paul Bryant.

There are four Callahan children — Kenneth Ray, 11; Karen Lee, 8; Terri Lynn, 5, and Toni Kay, 3.

After Callahan graduated from Kentucky he moved into high school coaching and won the "Kentucky High School Coach of the Year Award" in 1962.

The next year he went back to his alma mater as an assistant coach for the Wildcats, where he served on the staff with Rice, who also was a KU assistant.

Callahan came to Cincinnati with Rice in 1967, and their first team won three and dropped six. Last year the Bearcats finished with a 5-6-1 season, the best for Cincinnati since 1964.

Callahan said he expected to keep the staff intact.

East Star Camp Misses Joe Namath

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (AP) —Joe Namath, the toast of pro football, is the most wanted man on Coach Wally Lemm's list.

Lemm had to run his American Football League All-Stars through their first practice without a quarterback Monday.

Namath was apparently still celebrating his New York Jets' 16-7 victory over the Baltimore Colts in the Super Bowl.

Lemm, who coaches the Houston Oilers, is mighty happy to have Broalway Joe on his side. "Wasn't he fantastic?" Lemm said of Namath's performance against the Colts.

Coach Hank Stram of Kansas City, who had his AFL West All-Stars together for their opening practice, also talked of Namath and the Jets' upset which took the AFL out of second class status.

"What makes Namath different from most pro quarterbacks is his speed of retreat into the pocket before passing," Stram said. "Most pro passers go back nine yards. Namath goes 12. That's a heck of a difference."

Stram faces the problem of rushing Namath, a job that proved too much for AFL West stars last year – the first time the All-Star game was played in the Gator Bowl here. Namath engineered a 25-24 East victory, throwing two touchdown pass and plunging one yard for the winning score in the last minute.

Namath feels the need for a fourth operation on his left knee to mend an inflamed tendon in the joint. Jets physician Dr. James A. Nichols feels an operation could be hazardous. He believes rest will take care of the knee, and he will take another look at it before making final decision on the requested surgery.

Kentucky Gets 1,000th Cage Win, Tops Georgia

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

They're still playing around with that 1,000 victory figure down in Lexington, Ky., but the word now is "probable" instead of "possible."

The Wildcats, ranked fifth in the nation in the latest Associated Press poll, are—or were—in a race with Kansas and Oregon State to see which school could score 1,000 basketball victories.

And Kentucky came up with another one Monday night, an 88-68 decision over Georgia. That one, along with recently unearthed victories early in the century, previously recorded and awaiting NCAA approval, made Georgia victim No. 1,000.

Further complicating the situation, of course, is that trip to Israel a few years ago, made at the behest of the NCAA. Kentucky Coach Adolph Rupp claims four victories scored there should count. The NCAA says no.

The other ranked teams in action Monday night—No. 6 St. John's, N.Y., No. 16 Notre Dame, and No. 20 Colorado—all won. St. John's pulled away from Virginia 77-61 at Charlottesville, Va., Notre Dame bombed the Air Force 88-53 at South Bend, Ind., and Colorado held off Kansas State 73-69 at Boulder, Colo.

Although they won by 20 points, Kentucky had a tough time of it against Georgia. The Wildcats saw an 11 point lead dwindle to two midway through the second half, before they recovered and got their fast break back in gear.

Kentucky outscored the visitors 20-6 in a 6½ minute spread, the game was clinched and Rupp began to empty his bench.

Mike Casey had 20 points and Dan Issel 18 for Kentucky while Georgia's Bob Lienhard led all scorers with 27.

St. John's put on an 8-1 scoring burst in the last 2½ minutes of the first half, broke a 32-32 tie for a 40-33 halftime margin and breezed in from there.

John Warren topped St. John's with 20 points and Bill Paultz added 16. Tony Kinn led Virginia with 17.

Bob Arnzen led Notre Dame's rout of the Air Force, pouring in 32 points. He hit 13 of 20 from the floor, 6 of 7 free throws and had 12 rebounds. The Irish took it out of doubt with a 21-7 burst opening the second half.

Colorado celebrated its entry into the list of the ranked teams by taking over undisputed possession of first place in the Big Eight, and now is undefeated in four league games and 14-2 overall.

Gordon Tope's clutch four-for-four free throw performance in the final minute preserved the victory after Kansas State pulled to within two points. Tope led the scorers with 21, while Steve Honeycutt had 17 for the losers.

In some other major games Vanderbilt beat Mississippi 62-55, Maryland took Clemson 83-73, Tennessee edged Florida 64-63, Iowa State had to go to two overtimes for a 78-73 decision over Kansas, Creighton topped Providence 72-67, Tulsa whipped St. Louis 89-66, Lamar Tech took a 71-65 overtime decision from Houston and Colorado defeated Kansas State 73-69.

Reorganization Held

Athletic Board Names 3, Lists $16,660 In Funds

Three members of the East Liverpool board of education were appointed voting members of the the High School Athletic Board, as recommended by the Sebold report, when the athletic board held its reorganization meeting at the high school Monday night.

Samuel Brown, board of education president, appointed Thomas Rodfong, William Blair and Harry McConville as voting members of the athletic board. Brown and George Ward will attend the meetings, but will not have a vote in the action of the athletic board.

DURING THE meeting, Joseph Smith, treasurer, reported that the athletic association had a balance at the end of December of $16,660 and not approximately $35,000 as Harry McConville had reported at the board of education meeting Jan. 6.

Smith said, "The $14,482 in two separate savings accounts was incorporated in the 'book' balance and was not in addition to it. The checking account balance is $2,177. This amount, along with the savings accounts, represents the total balance."

Alton Dobson, high school principal and chairman of the atletic board, reported that $544 —$68 for each of eight home games—had been paid to the Band Mothers Club and a like amount to the Football Mothers Club. He said a final report has not been received from the Hot Dog Shoppe which ran the concession stands at the football games.

A discussion was held on the amount paid basketball officials at Westgate and East Junior High games.

East Junior has been paying $7.50 and Westgate $5. Athletic Director Bob McNea was asked to check into the situation and set up a plan so that both schools will be on the same basis.

PARKING facilities at basketball games also were discussed. It was suggested by McConville that perhaps a season parking ticket could be sold with season game tickets in the future. No action was taken.

Supt. Paul Blair reported work on changes requested in the storage rooms at East Junior is expected to start this week.

The Patterson Field committee was asked to determine needs for the football field and report to McNea and Dobson so materials can be ordered.

Tom Rodfong reported that the Blue and White Nonpareil Club has agreed to decorate the field for the first game with numbers and emblems, but asked the athletic board to supply the paint.

In other business, Carl Pelini, McNea and McConville were appointed to make arrangements for the football banquet.

A letter of thanks was read from the basketball cheerleading squad for the new uniforms.

Discussions were held on hardware for the gymnastics equipment and plastic for under the wrestling mats.

Joseph Mitchell, wrestling coach, explained the mats are quite heavy and said moving them was a problem.

Dennis Burke, gymnastics coach, was asked to find out what the cost would be for installing the necessary hardware to alleviate the situation. Purchase of the plastic was approved.

The group voted to compensate Joseph Smith $60 for the extra work done on the athletic accounts in October necessitated by a new state law. Smith also was commended for a "fine job."

Supt. Blair moved that Mr. Milton Watson be sent a letter of commendation and thanks for the work he did in ticket sales. The board approved the motion.

McLain Unconcerned By Shoulder Pain

By FRANK ECK
AP Newsfeatures Sports Editor

NEW YORK (AP) — Deny McLain hasn't thrown a baseball in three months but he refuses to worry about a pain in his shoulder or the fact that pitching mounds next spring will be 10 inches high instead of the usual 15.

"I never throw a baseball in the winter and I'm not going to start now," McLain said Monday. "I can wait until spring training.

"I have a little shoulder trouble which has all kinds of names. Actually it's a muscle stretched out of proportion.

Many pitchers who work a lot of innings pitch with pain in their arms, elbows or shoulders. With me, a few pills-- I take all kinds -- and the pain's gone."

Mc Lain, who compiled a 31-6 record last season to win the American League's Most Valuable Player prize and the Cy Young pitching award, said he hadn't noticed any changes in AL pitching mounds last season.

All the American League mounds were 15 inches high but in some parks the slope was changed around the 18-foot diameter to permit better drainage.

"I never even noticed that," said McLain who pitched 336 innings to become the first hurler in 37 years to win more than 30 major league games in one season.

"Reducing the height of the mound will put an added strain on some of them will come up with sore arms. You won't find as many pitchers working 250 to 300 innings."

Last year McLain was one of seven AL pitchers to toss 250 or more innings. The National League had 14 hurlers work more than 250 innings.

While McLain signed his 1969 contract right after the World Series he said Monday he would not report for spring training if the Players Association decided to strke.

3 Players May Attain 100 Points

MONTREAL (AP)—Like the four-minute milers who broke that mythical barrier a few years back, the first 100-point scoring hockey player in a National League season may make his appearance this year.

Statistics released by the league Monday show three players barrelling along at mid-season at the 100-point pace or better.

Bobby Hull, Chicago left-winger, leads the pack with 60 points, 30 goals and a like number of assists. Hull was declared winner of the $500 mid-season scoring leader award.

Phil Esposito of Boston who registered 18 points in the Bruins' last seven games as they surged into first place in the East Division, is breathing down Hull's neck with 59 points, 25 goals and 34 assists. Esposito received $250 as mid-season runner-up.

In third place among the top ten and well on the 100-point pace, is Gordie Howe of Detroit with 55 points, 19 goals and 36 assists.

If they remain free of injury, all three could pass the current record of 97 points in a season, held by Hull and his teammate, Stan Mikita. Mikita is staying with the scoring leaders and could become a fourth potential 100-point player. He's fourth among the top ten with 52 points, 16 goals and 36 assists.

Jacques Plante and Glenn Hall, St. Louis goalies, were awarded the $250 mid-season award in the goal tending race. The two veterans share the lead in shutouts with five each and have a combined goals- against average of 2.00.

Hayes Leads Scoring Over Big O

NEW YORK (AP)—Elvin Hayes, San Diego's high scoring rookie center, scored only 106 points in four games last week, but continued to hold a commanding lead over veteran Oscar Robertson in the National Basketball Association scoring race.

Hayes, who beat out Wilt Chamberlain in the voting for the center spot on the West team in the annual all-star game tonight in Baltimore, has scored 1,332 points in 44 games for a 30.3 average through games of Sunday night. Robertson scored 102 points last week and fell 196 points behind the San Diego rookie with 1136.

Hayes also ranks third in rebounding with 793. Chamberlain of Los Angeles is the leader with 895 and continues to be the best shooter, hitting 320 of 554 shots from the field for a .578 percentage.

Robertson of Cincinnati leads in assists with 406 for a 9.7 average and is second in free throw percentage, .855.

Larry Siegfried of Boston leads in free throw percentage, hitting 220 of 254 for an .866 mark.

Competition May Go Pro

Europeans Eye Rebound In Davis Cup Net Play

By GEOFFREY MILLER
ASSOCIATED PRESS SPORTS WRITER

LONDON, (AP)—The last great "Amateur" tennis stars of Europe-Manuel Santana of Spain, Tom Okker of The Netherlands, Mark Cox of Britain-are ready to set out on what could be the last all-amateur Davis Cup competition.

Critics believe this may be Europe's last chance for a long while to make a real splash in the world tournament.

The big four tennis powers – the United States, Australia, Britain and France – have called for an open Davis Cup, with the contracted pros joining in.

Since the cream of the professionals are Australians or Americans, it could result in those two countries dominating the tournament more heavily than ever. They have won the trophy between them regularly since 1937-Australia 16 times and America 10 times.

But while the competition remains for amateurs only, the stronger European teams are in with a chance. Santana, Okker and Cox are some of the men who could be facing the United States, the defending champions, in the challenge round.

Santana, Okker and Cox make a lot of money these days, from prizes and appearance fees in open tournaments. But they still rate as amateurs because they play under the jurisdiction of their national associations and are not under contract to promoters.

If this year's matches go according to form, Spain, led by the wily Santana, and The Netherlands, spearheaded by the fleet-footed Okker, could be facing each other in the final of the European zone section B next July.

Section A is more open. But the draw has been kind to the British, who think their chances are brighter than in any year since 1963, when they were European Zone champions.

The British have to play Switzerland in the first round and then, if they win that one, Ireland or Luxembourg in the second.

The tousle-headed Cox and his team should make the semi-finals. They would then have to overcome probably West Germany and South Africa to meet the winners of the American zone – predictably Australia – in the inter- zone semi-finals.

Bob Hewtt of South Africa-another amateur who rakes in the prize money – is the man who could upset European dreams.

Hewitt has made South Africa a powerful force in the Davis Cup since he emigrated from his native Australia. And South Africa plays in section A of the European zone.

But the British fancy their chances because if they have to play West Germany and South Africa both matches will be at home – on English grass courts. Cox and his teammates would have an advantage there, because other European zone contenders play most of their tennis on hard courts until they go to England to tune up for Wimbledon.

Britain won the Davis Cup four years running in the 1930's, in the days of Fred Perry.

There is little sign of a revival for France, Davis Cup winners six times between 1927 and 1932.

Since World War II only two European countries, Italy and Spain, have reached the challenge round.

Somerset Leads Win For Houston

By The Associated Press

The Houston Mavericks came to life Monday night and threw the Miami Floridians for a 119-96 loss in their American Basketball Association game at Houston.

At the same time the New Orleans Buccaneers were edging the New York Nets 114-110 in another ABA meeting, the only two games scheduled in either professional league.

Willie Somerset, seventh highest scorer in the ABA, pumped in 23 points to pace the Houston attack. Stew Johnson added another 20 points for the victors.

Miami center, Skip Thoren, led both teams with 25 points.

Jackie Moreland and Jimmy Jones dropped in 26 points each as they led New Orleans over New York. Moreland's 11 points in the third period enabled the Buccaneers to take an 88-82 lead into the final quarter.

Paced by Walt Simon's 27 points, New York held a brief lead, 77-76, in the third quarter before falling behind for good.

Kent State, Ashland Win Cage Games

By The Associated Press

Kent State and Ashland were Ohio winners Monday night in games with out-of-state foes but Xavier took another beating.

Ashland, rated fourth in the nation in The Associated Press small college poll, breezed past Nebraska Wesleyan, 82-48, at Ashland. John Savage and Jim Williams each got 13 points for Ashland but the 21 scored by John Brown of Nebraska Wesleyan represented the biggest total registered against Ashland by one player this season.

Kent State scored its second victory on a trip to the south by beating Florida State, 76,67. Kent State beat Tulane Saturday night.

Xavier, still having its troubles, took an 86-77 beating from DePaul of Chicago.

Those were the only games on the Ohio college program Monday night but there will be nine games tonight, topped by the Cincinnati-Drake Missouri Valley Conference tilt at Cincinnati.

The Stanton Athletic Boosters will hold a business meeting at 7:30 tonight at the school.

All members are urged to attend.

Steineman Suspended At Wheeling

WHEELING — Leading jockey George Steineman is going to give the rest of the field a chance to catch up with him, though not by his own choice.

The 37-year-old veteran, father of 7 children, starts a five-day suspension for rough riding today but he gained an early foot on the enforced vacation Monday when he came down with the flu.

Steineman had three mounts Monday and captured show money on each before he gave in to the urging of the thermometer and headed back to his Paris, Pa. home.

Steineman currently is leading the jockey race by a substantial margin with 11 wins, eight places, and eight show finishes in his 52 mounts. Kenneth Backer and William Bolling Jr. are second, each with seven wins.

Jockey Jimmy Clemens proved the riding star on Monday's program. The veteran booter had a perfect afternoon, winning with all four riding asignments. Despite the successful showing, Clemens, 30 - year-old hardboot, has listed better efforts in his career, having at one time posted five straight on a single card at Thistledowns near Cleveland.

Clemens' wins came aboard Carmel Flower ($5.00) in the fourth race, March Stick ($3.40) in the sixth event, Mystery Owl ($7.80) in the seventh and Island Paradise ($5.80) in the tenth race.

The Downs launched its week in traditional long-shot Monday fashion with a $384.40 Daily Double setting the tempo.

Miss Atoka, with James Cuddie aboard, gained good ground on the turn in the three-furlong spring opener and won over the odds-on favorite Olympia Gai at the wire to pay $28. Cuddie's chance at riding the double faded in the stretch in the second, a five-furlong affair, when Piping Rose, with Vladimir Zivkovic in the saddle, caught him in the stretch. The double was 4-4, marking the fourth time in the past five racing days that the double has started with the 4 horse.

NBA All-Star Game On TV Tonight

BALTIMORE (AP)—The rival coaches in tonight's National Basketball Association All-Star game are no strangers to the annual classic. Each appeared several times as a player.

Gene Shue of the host Baltimore Bullets will guide the East and Richie Guerin of Atlanta the West in the 19th renewal of the All-Star series that began in 1951.

The East won that first game, 111-94, and holds a 12-6 edge in the series, including last year's 144-124 victory behind Hall Greer's 21 points.

Shue and Guerin are making their first All-Star appearance as coaches, but Shue played in five of the games--scoring 66 points- and Guerin in six, scoring 63.

The West will be led by rookie star Elvin Hayes of San Diego, who sports a 30-point scoring average and beat out Wilt Chamberlain for the starting pivot spot. He'll be going against the dean of All-Star competition among active players, Boston's player-coach Bill Russell.

Starting with Hayes will be Elgin Baylor of Los Angeles, Don Kojis of San Diego, Len Wilkens of Seattle and Jerry Sloan of Chicago. Sloan was named to start after the Lakers' Jerry West withdrew because of a leg injury.

West's place on the roster was taken by Gail Goodrich of the Phoenix Suns.

Colorado Leads Big 8

Kentucky Gets 1,000th Cage Win, Tops Georgia

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

They're still playing around with that 1,000 victory figure down in Lexington, Ky., but the word now is "probable" instead of "possible."

The Wildcats, ranked fifth in the nation in the latest Associated Press poll, are—or were—in a race with Kansas and Oregon State to see which school could score 1,000 basketball victories.

And Kentucky came up with another one Monday night, an 88-68 decision over Georgia. That one, along with recently unearthed victories early in the century, previously recorded and awaiting NCAA approval, made Georgia victim No. 1,000.

Further complicating the situation, of course, is that trip to Israel a few years ago, made at the behest of the NCAA. Kentucky Coach Adolph Rupp claims four victories scored there should count. The NCAA says no.

The other ranked teams in action Monday night—No. 6. St. John's, N.Y., No. 16 Notre Dame, and No. 20 Colorado—all won. St. John's pulled away from Virginia 77-61 at Charlottesville, Va., Notre Dame bombed the Air Force 88-53 at South Bend, Ind., and Colorado held off Kansas State 73-69 at Boulder, Colo.

Although they won by 20 points, Kentucky had a tough time of it against Georgia. The Wildcats saw an 11 point lead dwindle to two midway through the second half, before they recovered and got their fast break back in gear.

Kentucky outscored the visitors 20-6 in a 6½ minute spread, the game was clinched and Rupp began to empty his bench.

Mike Casey had 20 points and Dan Issel 18 for Kentucky while Georgia's Bob Lienhard led all scorers with 27.

St. John's put on an 8-1 scoring burst in the last 2½ minutes of the first half, broke a 32-32 tie for a 40-33 halftime margin and breezed in from there.

John Warren topped St. John's with 20 points and Bill Paultz added 16. Tony Kinn led Virginia with 17.

Bob Arnzen led Notre Dame's rout of the Air Force, pouring in 32 points. He hit 13 of 20 from the floor, 6 of 7 free throws and had 12 rebounds. The Irish took it out of doubt with a 21-7 burst opening the second half.

Colorado celebrated its entry into the list of the ranked teams by taking over undisputed possession of first place in the Big Eight, and now is undefeated in four league games and 14-2 overall.

Gordon Tope's clutch four-for-four free throw performance in the final minute preserved the victory after Kansas State pulled to within two points. Tope led the scorers with 21, while Steve Honeycutt had 17 for the losers.

In some other major games Vanderbilt beat Mississippi 62-55, Maryland took Clemson 83-73, Tennessee edged Florida 64-63, Iowa State had to go to two overtimes for a 78-73 decision over Kansas, Creighton topped Providence 72-67, Tulsa whipped St. Louis 89-66, Lamar Tech took a 71-65 overtime decision from Houston and Colorado defeated Kansas State 73-69.

Reorganization Held

Athletic Board Names 3, Lists $16,660 In Funds

Three members of the East Liverpool board of education were appointed voting members of the the High School Athletic Board, as recommended by the Sebold report, when the athletic board held its reorganization meeting at the high school Monday night.

Samuel Brown, board of education president, appointed Thomas Rodfong, William Blair and Harry McConville as voting members of the athletic board. Brown and George Ward will attend the meetings, but will not have a vote in the action of the athletic board.

DURING THE meeting, Joseph Smith, treasurer, reported that the athletic association had a balance at the end of December of $16,660 and not approximately $35,000 as Harry McConville had reported at the board of education meeting Jan. 6.

Smith said, "The $14,482 in two separate savings accounts was incorporated in the 'book' balance and was not in addition to it. The checking account balance is $2,177. This amount, along with the savings accounts, represents the total balance."

Alton Dobson, high school principal and chairman of the atletic board, reported that $544 —$68 for each of eight home games—had been paid to the Band Mothers Club and a like amount to the Football Mothers Club. He said a final report has not been received from the Hot Dog Shoppe which ran the concession stands at the football games.

A discussion was held on the amount paid basketball officials at Westgate and East Junior High games.

East Junior has been paying $7.50 and Westgate $5. Athletic Director Bob McNea was asked to check into the situation and set up a plan so that both schools will be on the same basis.

PARKING facilities at basketball games also were discussed. It was suggested by McConville that perhaps a season parking ticket could be sold with season game tickets in the future. No action was taken.

Supt. Paul Blair reported work on changes requested in the storage rooms at East Junior is expected to start this week.

The Patterson Field committee was asked to determine needs for the football field and report to McNea and Dobson so materials can be ordered.

Tom Rodfong reported that the Blue and White Nonpareil Club has agreed to decorate the field for the first game with numbers and emblems, but asked the athletic board to supply the paint.

In other business, Carl Pelini, McNea and McConville were appointed to make arrangements for the football banquet.

A letter of thanks was read from the basketball cheerleading squad for the new uniforms.

Discussions were held on hardware for the gymnastics equipment and plastic for under the wrestling mats.

Joseph Mitchell, wrestling coach, explained the mats are quite heavy and said moving them was a problem.

Dennis Burke, gymnastics coach, was asked to find out what the cost would be for installing the necessary hardware to alleviate the situation. Purchase of the plastic was approved.

The group voted to compensate Joseph Smith $60 for the extra work done on the athletic accounts in October necessitated by a new state law. Smith also was commended for a "fine job."

Supt. Blair moved that Mr. Milton Watson be sent a letter of commendation and thanks for the work he did in ticket sales. The board approved the motion.

McLain Unconcerned By Shoulder Pain

By FRANK ECK
AP Newsfeatures Sports Editor

NEW YORK (AP) — Deny McLain hasn't thrown a baseball in three months but he refuses to worry about a pain in his shoulder or the fact that pitching mounds next spring will be 10 inches high instead of the usual 15.

"I never throw a baseball in the winter and I'm not going to start now," McLain said Monday. "I can wait until spring training.

"I have a little shoulder trouble which has all kinds of names. Actually it's a muscle stretched out of proportion.

Many pitchers who work a lot of innings pitch with pain in their arms, elbows or shoulders. With me, a few pills-- I take all kinds — and the pain's gone."

Mc Lain, who compiled a 31-6 record last season to win the American League's Most Valuable Player prize and the Cy Young pitching award, said he hadn't noticed any changes in AL pitching mounds last season.

All the American League mounds were 15 inches high but in some parks the slope was changed around the 18-foot diameter to permit better drainage.

"I never even noticed that," said McLain who pitched 336 innings to become the first hurler in 37 years to win more than 30 major league games in one season.

"Reducing the height of the mound will put an added strain on some of them will come up with sore arms. You won't find as many pitchers working 250 to 300 innings."

Last year McLain was one of seven AL pitchers to toss 250 or more innings. The National League had 14 hurlers work more than 250 innings.

While McLain signed his 1969 contract right after the World Series he said Monday he would not report for spring training if the Players Association decided to strke.

3 Players May Attain 100 Points

MONTREAL (AP)—Like the four-minute milers who broke that mythical barrier a few years back, the first 100-point scoring hockey player in a National League season may make his appearance this year.

Statistics released by the league Monday show three players barrelling along at mid-season at the 100-point pace or better.

Bobby Hull, Chicago left-winger, leads the pack with 60 points, 30 goals and a like number of assists. Hull was declared winner of the $500 mid-season scoring leader award.

Phil Esposito of Boston who registered 18 points in the Bruins' last seven games as they surged into first place in the East Division, is breathing down Hull's neck with 59 points, 25 goals and 34 assists. Esposito received $250 as mid-season runner-up.

In third place among the top ten and well on the 100-point pace, is Gordie Howe of Detroit with 55 points, 19 goals and 36 assists.

If they remain free of injury, all three could pass the current record of 97 points in a season, held by Hull and his teammate, Stan Mikita. Mikita is staying with the scoring leaders and could become a fourth potential 100-point player. He's fourth among the top ten with 52 points, 16 goals and 36 assists.

Jacques Plante and Glenn Hall, St. Louis goalies, were awarded the $250 mid-season award in the goal tending race. The two veterans share the lead in shutouts with five each and have a combined goals- against average of 2.00.

Hayes Leads Scoring Over Big O

NEW YORK (AP)—Elvin Hayes, San Diego's high scoring rookie center, scored only 106 points in four games last week, but continued to hold a commanding lead over veteran Oscar Robertson in the National Basketball Association scoring race.

Hayes, who beat out Wilt Chamberlain in the voting for the center spot on the West team in the annual all-star game tonight in Baltimore, has scored 1,332 points in 44 games for a 30.3 average through games of Sunday night. Robertson scored 102 points last week and fell 196 points behind the San Diego rookie with 1136.

Hayes also ranks third in rebounding with 793. Chamberlain of Los Angeles is the leader with 895 and continues to be the best shooter, hitting 320 of 554 shots from the field for a .578 percentage.

Robertson of Cincinnati leads in assists with 406 for a 9.7 average and is second in free throw percentage, .855.

Larry Siegfried of Boston leads in free throw percentage, hitting 220 of 254 for an .866 mark.

Competition May Go Pro

Europeans Eye Rebound In Davis Cup Net Play

By GEOFFREY MILLER
ASSOCIATED PRESS SPORTS WRITER

LONDON, (AP)—The last great "Amateur" tennis stars of Europe-Manuel Santana of Spain, Tom Okker of The Netherlands, Mark Cox of Britain-are ready to set out on what could be the last all-amateur Davis Cup competition.

Critics believe this may be Europe's last chance for a long while to make a real splash in the world tournament.

The big four tennis powers – the United States, Australia, Britain and France – have called for an open Davis Cup, with the contracted pros joining in.

Since the cream of the professionals are Australians or Americans, it could result in those two countries dominating the tournament more heavily than ever. They have won the trophy between them regularly since 1937-Australia 16 times and America 10 times.

But while the competition remains for amateurs only, the stronger European teams are in with a chance. Santana, Okker and Cox are some of the men who could be facing the United States, the defending champions, in the challenge round.

Santana, Okker and Cox make a lot of money these days, from prizes and appearance fees in open tournaments. But they still rate as amateurs because they play under the jurisdiction of their national associations and are not under contract to promoters.

If this year's matches go according to form, Spain, led by the wily Santana, and The Netherlands, spearheaded by the fleet-footed Okker, could be facing each other in the final of the European zone section B next July.

Section A is more open. But the draw has been kind to the British, who think their chances are brighter than in any year since 1963, when they were European Zone champions.

The British have to play Switzerland in the first round and then, if they win that one, Ireland or Luxembourg in the second.

The tousle-headed Cox and his team should make the semi-finals. They would then have to overcome probably West Germany and South Africa to meet the winners of the American zone – predictably Australia – in the inter- zone semi-finals.

Bob Hewtt of South Africa-another amateur who rakes in the prize money – is the man who could upset European dreams.

Hewitt has made South Africa a powerful force in the Davis Cup since he emigrated from his native Australia. And South Africa plays in section A of the European zone.

But the British fancy their chances because if they have to play West Germany and South Africa both matches will be at home – on English grass courts. Cox and his teammates would have an advantage there, because other European zone contenders play most of their tennis on hard courts until they go to England to tune up for Wimbledon.

Britain won the Davis Cup four years running in the 1930's, in the days of Fred Perry.

There is little sign of a revival for France, Davis Cup winners six times between 1927 and 1932.

Since World War II only two European countries, Italy and Spain, have reached the challenge round.

Somerset Leads Win For Houston

By The Associated Press

The Houston Mavericks came to life Monday night and threw the Miami Floridians for a 119-96 loss in their American Basketball Association game at Houston.

At the same time the New Orleans Buccaneers were edging the New York Nets 114-110 in another ABA meeting, the only two games scheduled in either professional league.

Willie Somerset, seventh highest scorer in the ABA, pumped in 23 points to pace the Houston attack. Stew Johnson added another 20 points for the victors.

Miami center, Skip Thoren, led both teams with 25 points.

Jackie Moreland and Jimmy Jones dropped in 26 points each as they led New Orleans over New York. Moreland's 11 points in the third period enabled the Buccaneers to take an 88-82 lead into the final quarter.

Paced by Walt Simon's 27 points, New York held a brief lead, 77-76, in the third quarter before falling behind for good.

Kent State, Ashland Win Cage Games

By The Associated Press

Kent State and Ashland were Ohio winners Monday night in games with out-of-state foes but Xavier took another beating.

Ashland, rated fourth in the nation in The Associated Press small college poll, breezed past Nebraska Wesleyan, 82-48, at Ashland. John Savage and Jim Williams each got 13 points for Ashland but the 21 scored by John Brown of Nebraska Wesleyan represented the biggest total registered against Ashland by one player this season.

Kent State scored its second victory on a trip to the south by beating Florida State, 76,67. Kent State beat Tulane Saturday night.

Xavier, still having its troubles, took an 86-77 beating from DePaul of Chicago.

Those were the only games on the Ohio college program Monday night but there will be nine games tonight, topped by the Cincinnati-Drake Missouri Valley Conference tilt at Cincinnati.

Meeting Tonight

The Stanton Athletic Boosters will hold a business meeting at 7:30 tonight at the school.

All members are urged to attend.

Steineman Suspended At Wheeling

WHEELING — Leading jockey George Steineman is going to give the rest of the field a chance to catch up with him, though not by his own choice.

The 37-year-old veteran, father of 7 children, starts a five-day suspension for rough riding today but he gained an early foot on the enforced vacation Monday when he came down with the flu.

Steineman had three mounts Monday and captured show money on each before he gave in to the urging of the thermometer and headed back to his Paris, Pa. home.

Steineman currently is leading the jockey race by a substantial margin with 11 wins, eight places, and eight show finishes in his 52 mounts. Kenneth Backer and William Bolling Jr. are second, each with seven wins.

Jockey Jimmy Clemens proved the riding star on Monday's program. The veteran booter had a perfect afternoon, winning with all four riding asignments. Despite the successful showing, Clemens, 30 - year-old hardboot, has listed better efforts in his career, having at one time posted five straight on a single card at Thistledowns near Cleveland.

Clemens' wins came aboard Carmel Flower ($5.00) in the fourth race, March Stick ($3.40) in the sixth event, Mystery Owl ($7.80) in the seventh and Island Paradise ($5.80) in the tenth race.

The Downs launched its week in traditional long-shot Monday fashion with a $384.40 Daily Double setting the tempo.

Miss Atoka, with James Cuddie aboard, gained good ground on the turn in the three-furlong spring opener and won over the odds-on favorite Olympia Gai at the wire to pay $28. Cuddie's chance at riding the double faded in the stretch in the second, a five-furlong affair, when Piping Rose, with Vladimir Zivkovic in the saddle, caught him in the stretch. The double was 4-4, marking the fourth time in the past five racing days that the double has started with the 4 horse.

NBA All-Star Game On TV Tonight

BALTIMORE (AP)—The rival coaches in tonight's National Basketball Association All-Star game are no strangers to the annual classic. Each appeared several times as a player.

Gene Shue of the host Baltimore Bullets will guide the East and Richie Guerin of Atlanta the West in the 19th renewal of the All-Star series that began in 1951.

The East won that first game, 111-94, and holds a 12-6 edge in the series, including last year's 144-124 victory behind Hall Greer's 21 points.

Shue and Guerin are making their first All-Star appearance as coaches, but Shue played in five of the games--scoring 66 points- and Guerin in six, scoring 63.

The West will be led by rookie star Elvin Hayes of San Diego, who sports a 30-point scoring average and beat out Wilt Chamberlain for the starting pivot spot. He'll be going against the dean of All-Star competition among active players, Boston's player-coach Bill Russell.

Starting with Hayes will be Elgin Baylor of Los Angeles, Don Kojis of San Diego, Len Wilkens of Seattle and Jerry Sloan of Chicago. Sloan was named to start after the Lakers' Jerry West withdrew because of a leg injury.

West's place on the roster was taken by Gail Goodrich of the Phoenix Suns.

Bill Would Ease Fishing License Plan For Elderly

By Our Own Correspondent

COLUMBUS, Ohio — A bill to make it easier for those between 65 and 70 to get a fishing license was introduced in the Senate Monday night by State Sen. Douglas Applegate, D-Steubenville.

Briefly, the bill would allow person between 65 and 70 to obtain licenses from any agency issuing them. As the law now stands, they can obtain a fishing license only from the clerk of Common Pleas Court.

Applegate said Carl Stacey, Columbiana County clerk of courts, suggested the change to him.

"The bill will simply make it easier for Senior Citizens to get fishing licenses," the Jefferson County legislator said.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Negotiators for the Associated Press and the striking Wire Service Guild resume their sessions with federal mediators today. Neither side commented on the talks in compliance with a request from the Mediation Service.

TAKE YOUR TIME IN '69

A 10-year-old Salem area boy became Columbiana County's first traffic fatality of 1969 when his sled was struck by a car at 5:35 p. m. Monday.

Eugene Straub Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Straub of Salem RD 3, was sledding on the Teegarden Rd., just west of Route 45, when struck by a 1965 sedan operated by Patrick L. Gillooly, 65, of 1100 Bacon Ave., East Palestine.

The youth was pronounced dead on arrival at Salem Central Clinic.

An East Liverpool area motorist was treated at City Hospital here for injuries received as the result of a one-car accident on Route 30 about 3½ miles south of Lisbon at 12:30 p. m. Monday.

Carl B. Bailey of Box 161 said he swerved his 1968 sedan to avoid a car ahead of his which had slowed to make a left turn. He lost control of his auto and it struck a pole.

Bailey was treated for contusions of the chest and released.

The accident is still under investigation.

A Salem area driver was charged with driving left of center as the result of a truck-car accident on Snyder Rd., about a half-mile west of Route 45, at 9:30 a.m. Monday.

William Sommers, 55, of Salem RD 2 was eastbound in his 1969 coach when it went left of center and hit a tractor-trailer driven by Merle R. Gotthardt, 45, of Main St., New Waterford.

No one was injured.

An East Liverpool area driver escaped injury in a truck accident Monday on the Echo Dell Rd. about a mile and a half south of the Clarkson Rd.

Under terms of the agreement signed Monday with the County Commissioners, the director will receive $350 a month for one trip weekly to minister medical aid to the residents plus any calls for emergency treatment of patients at the home.

In addition, Dr. Hart shall receive $5 for each trip made to Salem City Hospital or Salem Central Clinic to treat County Home patients transferred to the hospitals.

The agreement extends to Jan. 12, 1970. The County Home has been without a medical director since the death of Dr. Reinhold Rankis of Lisbon last Sept. 18.

Commissioners yesterday approved for payment from the dog and kennel fund a $375 claim filed by Perry Betz of Hanoverton RD 1 for three Holstein heifers destroyed by stray dogs Dec. 26.

Portugal Air Force To Try Fishing Luck

LISBON (AP) — The Portuguese Air Force is going fishing.

Squadrons of Air Force planes have been called to the rescue of fishermen in southern Portugal who are having trouble locating sufficient sardine and tuna fish schools.

The catch of the two species is the most important activity of the southern provinces, and it has been on the decrease.

After a request from fishing industrialists, the Air Force sent twin-engine propeller craft to study fish migration patterns. The unprecedented search is expected to be extended outside territorial waters eventually.

Dislikes Utility Role

Salmon Wants To Start For Seattle Pilot Nine

SEATTLE (AP) — Chico Salmon says his move from the Cleveland Indians to the new Seattle Pilots of the American League will give him a chance to wear out the rest of his uniform—not just the seat of his pants.

Chico has been known in the trade as a professional utility man. That means a bench warmer, as far as he's concerned. Pilots' general manager Marvin Milkes characterized Chico as "the best utility man in the majors."

Chico was insulted.

"Wild cards may be good in a poker game, but they don't earn much money in baseball," he said.

After a blazing career in the minors, Salmon went up to the Indians in 1964 and, though he batted .307, he got into only 86 games. The next season he appeared in only 79 games and batted .242.

Salmon got off the bench for 126 games in 1966 because of team injuries, and posted a respectable .256 but that still didn't win him a starting job with the Indians. He spent half of the next two seasons nailing down the "utility man" tag.

During those years he shifted from the outfield to the infield and back. When the Pilots, who will enter the American League this year, picked him up in the expansion draft for $175,000, he immediately had visions of a regular job.

"I'll be starting all over again," he said. "With Cleveland, every spring I'd fight for a job, but down deep I knew that I'd be doing when the season opened—sitting on the bench.

"It's embarrassing to sit on the bench. You eat your heart out, and when you do get in, you sometimes try too hard. That bench messes up emotionally."

But Chico worries some about the substitute tag.

"That's why I'm glad our manager, Joe Schultz, is out of the National League," he said.

"Maybe he doesn't have me labelled," Chico said.

Schultz was a coach on the St Louis Cardinals before being hired to pilot the Pilots in their first season.

What position will he shoot for on the Pilots—a club strong, at least on paper in the infield?

"Anywhere," Chico said. "The position I like is shortstop." Then he thought a bit and added: "I like second base, too."

Includes Foreign Firms

Arab States To Tighten Goods Boycott Of Israel

By The Associated Press

The Arab states plan to tighten their 16-year economic boycott of Israel and foreign firms that do business with the Jewish state, a spokesman said Tuesday. But he did not announce what action would be taken.

Mohammed Mahjob, commissioner general of the Arab League's Boycott Israel movement, said in Damascus, Syria, that measures "to plug the gaps in the siege" are in the offing. He said they would be approved at a conference in Qatar Jan. 20.

Currently on the Arab black list are firms that have main or branch factories in Israel; firms that hold shares in Israeli businesses; firms that render constructural or technical aid to Israeli industry; firms searching for natural resources in Israel; banks that do more business in Israel than in Arab states, and those that give the right to use names, trade marks or patents to Israeli concerns.

Shipping and air lines are blacklisted if they carry Jewish immigrants or military cargo to Israel. The boycott regulations also apply against film stars and movie companies that are deemed to serve Israeli propaganda or financial interests.

America's Ford Motor Co. and Coca Cola are on the black list. To avoid a similar fate, many large firms such as Renault of France shut down their assembly plants in Israel.

Mahjob said 67 firms from various countries have applied to be taken off the black list and have provided documents proving the termination of their association with Israel. These applications will be decided at the Qatar conference, he said.

In Tel Aviv, an army spokesman reported fresh border clashes between Israeli and Jordanian troops while the military leaders of both countries appeared on a British television program Monday night. The spoksman said two Israeli soldiers were wounded in brief firefights and another was wounded when his jeep ran over a mine in the occupied west bank of the Jordan River.

In separate interviews with the British Broadcasting Corp., King Hussein of Jordan welcomed Big Four moves toward a Middle East peace settlement and Iisraeli Defense Minister Moshe Dayan said: "Peace cannot be imposed on anybody."

Dayan reiterated the Israeli contention that the only way to get peace would be direct talks with the Arabs. He said Israel had no intention of relinquishing territories it occupied in the 1967 war, would retain the strategic town of Sharm el Shiehk at the head of Tiran strait and would not relinquish administrative control of Jerusalem.

Hussein warned that Israeli attempts to retain Jerusalem would mean that "the city of peace could once again become a battlefield." He said the only solution to the crisis was Israeli acceptance of the U.N. Security Council resolution of Nov. 22, 1967, which among other things called on Israel to relinquish occupied territories.

Beavers, Indians Split Cage Games

Jim Smith had 17, John Brown 13 and Jim Williams 10 for the winners, while Davis paced the losers with 8. Southern is now 4-2.

Beaver Local won the seventh grade game 36-11 as Pete Shaw led the way with 8 points. Mark Danner had 6 for Southern.

There are approximately 60,000 pieces of cut colored glass in the 53 story-telling windows of the new National Presbyterian Church and Center in Washington, D.C.

From 1799 through 1965, the United States mined 307,182,000 ounces of gold, the National Geographic Society says. At the current price of $35 an ounce, this would be worth $10,751,370,000.

CATV Slated To Add Pittsburgh Channel 53

The CATV of Ohio Valley cable television firm serving East Liverpool and Wellsville plans to add two new area stations to its system, Jack Hales, manager, has announced.

A new Pittsburgh station — WPGH, Channel 53 — is scheduled to start programming Feb. 1 and is currently running a test pattern. The independent station will carry variety programs and movies.

Channel 23—WAKR—of Akron is now being carried occasionally on CATV's channel 5. Hales said it has not yet been determined to which cable channels the two stations finally will be assigned.

Bill Would Ease Fishing License Plan For Elderly

By Our Own Correspondent

COLUMBUS, Ohio — A bill to make it easier for those between 65 and 70 to get a fishing license was introduced in the Senate Monday night by State Sen. Douglas Applegate, D-Steubenville.

Briefly, the bill would allow person between 65 and 70 to obtain licenses from any agency issuing them. As the law now stands, they can obtain a fishing license only from the clerk of Common Pleas Court.

Applegate said Carl Stacey, Columbiana County clerk of courts, suggested the change to him.

"The bill will simply make it easier for Senior Citizens to get fishing licenses," the Jefferson County legislator said.

AP And Wire Guild Resume Negotiations

WASHINGTON (AP) — Negotiations for the Associated Press and the striking Wire Service Guild resume their sessions with federal mediators today. Neither side commented on the talks in compliance with a request from the Mediation Service.

In New York, meanwhile, members of the American Newspaper Guild at the New York Daily News—who had refused to handle AP copy since the Guild struck the news service Thursday—bowed to an arbitrator's ruling and resumed normal processing of AP material.

Epiphany, Jan. 6, is celebrated with an unusual blessing of the Greek sponge divers ritual at Tarpon Springs, Fla. A bishop throws his gold crucifix into the water to signify the baptism of Christ. Young men dive after the cross. Whoever retrieves it is especially blessed.

William Sommers, 55, of Salem RD 2 was eastbound in his 1969 coach when it went left of center and hit a tractor-trailer driven by Merle R. Gotthardt, 45, of Main St., New Waterford.

No one was injured.

An East Liverpool area driver escaped injury in a truck accident Monday on the Echo Dell Rd. about a mile and a half south of the Clarkson Rd.

County Home Gets Doctor

LISBON — Dr. Virgil C. Hart, Salem physician, will serve as medical director at the Columbiana County Home for a one-year period.

Under terms of the agreement signed Monday with the County Commissioners, the director will receive $350 a month for one trip weekly to minister medical aid to the residents plus any calls for emergency treatment of patients at the home.

In addition, Dr. Hart shall receive $5 for each trip made to Salem City Hospital or Salem Central Clinic to treat County Home patients transferred to the hospitals.

The agreement extends to Jan. 12, 1970. The County Home has been without a medical director since the death of Dr. Reinhold Rankis of Lisbon last Sept. 18.

Commissioners yesterday approved for payment from the dog and kennel fund a $375 claim filed by Perry Betz of Hanoverton RD 1 for three Holstein heifers destroyed by stray dogs Dec. 26.

Portugal Air Force To Try Fishing Luck

LISBON (AP) — The Portuguese Air Force is going fishing.

Squadrons of Air Force planes have been called to the rescue of fishermen in southern Portugal who are having trouble locating sufficient sardine and tuna fish schools.

The catch of the two species is the most important activity of the southern provinces, and it has been on the decrease.

After a request from fishing industrialists, the Air Force sent twin-engine propeller craft to study fish migration patterns. The unprecedented search is expected to be extended outside territorial waters eventually.

Midland Board Receives Bids On Milk, Equipment

Bids for school milk and track equipment were opened by the Midland school board during a meeting Monday night at the administrative offices.

The milk bids — all at 8.12 cents a pint — were received from the Hyllmede Dairy of Beaver Falls, the Taylor Milk Co. of Ambridge, United Dairy Farmers Co-operative of Pittsburgh and the White Front Dairy of Midland. The offers were turned over to the secretary for tabulation and awarding of contracts.

Ed Cilli, athletic chairman, announced the 1969 football schedule. In Class B Midland will play Coraopolis, Blairsville, Monaca, Trafford, Western Beaver and German Township. In the three Class A games, Midland will play Bethlehem-Center, Rochester and Freedom.

Western Beaver County Schools were given permission to use the Midland football field for home games in 1969.

A proposal was made for the acquisition of state papers in connection with the new elementary school project. The form is necessary so revised figures from the architect may be filed.

The Midland Mothers Athletic Association and the Midland Band Boosters were given permission to again operate the concessions at home football and basketball games for 1969. The groups pay the Athletic Fund of the school 30 per cent of the profits. During the 1968 football season, the school fund received $330.

Dislikes Utility Role

Salmon Wants To Start For Seattle Pilot Nine

SEATTLE (AP) — Chico Salmon says his move from the Cleveland Indians to the new Seattle Pilots of the American League will give him a chance to wear out the rest of his uniform—not just the seat of his pants.

Chico has been known in the trade as a professional utility man. That means a bench warmer, as far as he's concerned. Pilots' general manager Marvin Milkes characterized Chico as "the best utility man in the majors."

Chico was insulted.

"Wild cards may be good in a poker game, but they don't earn much money in baseball," he said.

After a blazing career in the minors, Salmon went up to the Indians in 1964 and, though he batted .307, he got into only 86 games. The next season he appeared in only 79 games and batted .242.

Salmon got off the bench for 126 games in 1966 because of team injuries, and posted a respectable .256 but that still didn't win him a starting job with the Indians. He spent half of the next two seasons nailing down the "utility man" tag.

During those years he shifted from the outfield to the infield and back. When the Pilots, who will enter the American League this year, picked him up in the expansion draft for $175,000, he immediately had visions of a regular job.

"I'll be starting all over again," he said. "With Cleveland, every spring I'd fight for a job, but down deep I knew that I'd be doing when the season opened—sitting on the bench.

"It's embarrassing to sit on the bench. You eat your heart out, and when you do get in, you sometimes try too hard. That bench messes up emotionally."

But Chico worries some about the substitute tag.

"That's why I'm glad our manager, Joe Schultz, is out of the National League," he said.

"Maybe he doesn't have me labelled," Chico said.

Schultz was a coach on the St Louis Cardinals before being hired to pilot the Pilots in their first season.

What position will he shoot for on the Pilots—a club strong, at least on paper in the infield?

"Anywhere," Chico said. "The position I like is shortstop." Then he thought a bit and added: "I like second base, too."

Arab States To Tighten Goods Boycott Of Israel

By The Associated Press

The Arab states plan to tighten their 16-year economic boycott of Israel and foreign firms that do business with the Jewish state, a spokesman said Tuesday. But he did not announce what action would be taken.

Mohammed Mahjob, commissioner general of the Arab League's Boycott Israel movement, said in Damascus, Syria, that measures "to plug the gaps in the siege" are in the offing. He said they would be approved at a conference in Qatar Jan. 20.

Currently on the Arab black list are firms that have main or branch factories in Israel; firms that hold shares in Israeli businesses; firms that render constructural or technical aid to Israeli industry; firms searching for natural resources in Israel; banks that do more business in Israel than in Arab states, and those that give the right to use names, trade marks or patents to Israeli concerns.

Shipping and air lines are blacklisted if they carry Jewish immigrants or military cargo to Israel. The boycott regulations also apply against film stars and movie companies that are deemed to serve Israeli propaganda or financial interests.

America's Ford Motor Co. and Coca Cola are on the black list. To avoid a similar fate, many large firms such as Renault of France shut down their assembly plants in Israel.

Mahjob said 67 firms from various countries have applied to be taken off the black list and have provided documents proving the termination of their association with Israel. These applications will be decided at the Qatar conference, he said.

In Tel Aviv, an army spokesman reported fresh border clashes between Israeli and Jordanian troops while the military leaders of both countries appeared on a British television program Monday night. The spoksman said two Israeli soldiers were wounded in brief firefights and another was wounded when his jeep ran over a mine in the occupied west bank of the Jordan River.

In separate interviews with the British Broadcasting Corp., King Hussein of Jordan welcomed Big Four moves toward a Middle East peace settlement and Iisraeli Defense Minister Moshe Dayan said: "Peace cannot be imposed on anybody."

Dayan reiterated the Israeli contention that the only way to get peace would be direct talks with the Arabs. He said Israel had no intention of relinquishing territories it occupied in the 1967 war, would retain the strategic town of Sharm el Shiehk at the head of Tiran strait and would not relinquish administrative control of Jerusalem.

Hussein warned that Israeli attempts to retain Jerusalem would mean that "the city of peace could once again become a battlefield." He said the only solution to the crisis was Israeli acceptance of the U.N. Security Council resolution of Nov. 22, 1967, which among other things called on Israel to relinquish occupied territories.

Beavers, Indians Split Cage Games

The Southern Local eighth graders downed the Beaver Local eighth graders 47-26 in a basketball game on the Beavers' floor yesterday.

Jim Smith had 17, John Brown 13 and Jim Williams 10 for the winners, while Davis paced the losers with 8. Southern is now 4-2.

Beaver Local won the seventh grade game 36-11 as Pete Shaw led the way with 8 points. Mark Danner had 6 for Southern.

There are approximately 60,000 pieces of cut colored glass in the 53 story-telling windows of the new National Presbyterian Church and Center in Washington, D.C.

From 1799 through 1965, the United States mined 307,182,000 ounces of gold, the National Geographic Society says. At the current price of $35 an ounce, this would be worth $10,751,370,000.

Junior Editors Quiz on FIRE

QUESTION: Is fire a solid, a liquid or a gas?

* * *

ANSWER: Fire is mysterious; for something so comforting, it can hurt you so much. It doesn't seem like a thing, and yet it can destroy solid things in a remarkably short time. A primitive girl and boy, squatting in front of their fire, may have thought of it in the same way Jeannie and Terry are thinking in our drawing. The ancients had many theories and myths concerning fire. It was not understood until 1774, when the great French chemist Lavoisier demonstrated its true nature. We know today that all the natural things around us are to be classed as either matter or energy. Fire is a form of chemical energy, giving off light and heat. It is produced when the oxygen of the air, which is a form of matter, is combined with some burnable fuel, such as paper, wood or coal, also forms of matter. But the fire which burns them is not matter but chemical energy, so we can not speak of it as being either a solid, a liquid or a gas. The discovery of fire was one of the most important and useful ever made. But fire can be extremely dangerous; never play with it.

Junior Editors Quiz on FIRE

QUESTION: Is fire a solid, a liquid or a gas?

* * *

ANSWER: Fire is mysterious; for something so comforting, it can hurt you so much. It doesn't seem like a thing, and yet it can destroy solid things in a remarkably short time. A primitive girl and boy, squatting in front of their fire, may have thought of it in the same way Jeannie and Terry are thinking in our drawing. The ancients had many theories and myths concerning fire. It was not understood until 1774, when the great French chemist Lavoisier demonstrated its true nature. We know today that all the natural things around us are to be classed as either matter or energy. Fire is a form of chemical energy, giving off light and heat. It is produced when the oxygen of the air, which is a form of matter, is combined with some burnable fuel, such as paper, wood or coal, also forms of matter. But the fire which burns them is not matter but chemical energy, so we can not speak of it as being either a solid, a liquid or a gas. The discovery of fire was one of the most important and useful ever made. But fire can be extremely dangerous; never play with it.

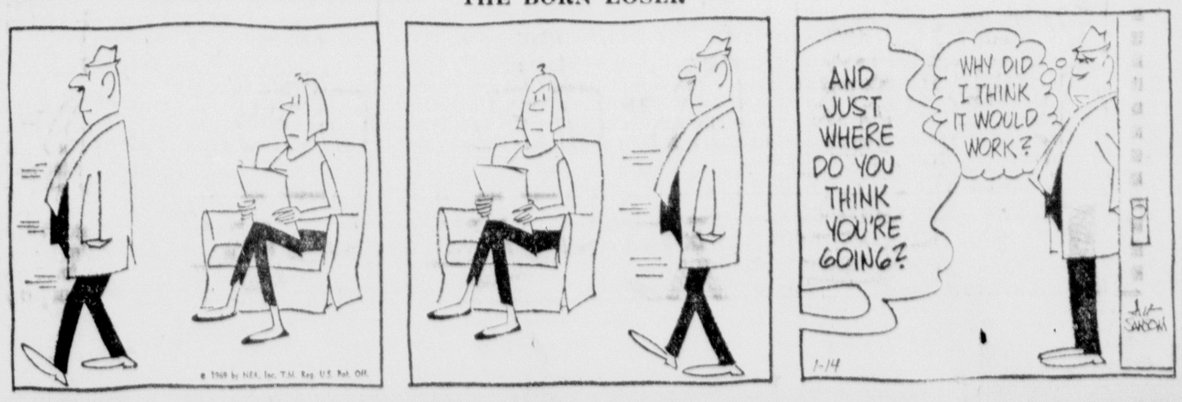
THE BORN LOSER



Add up to $10,000.00 to your health protection for only 25¢

(TO ENROLL ENTIRE FAMILY FIRST MONTH)

ACT NOW—YOU MUST MAIL ENROLLMENT FORM BELOW BY MIDNIGHT, SAT., FEBRUARY 1, OR IT CANNOT BE ACCEPTED

Here are the questions you'd normally ask your insurance man. But we answered them instead . . . so you would be able to insure yourself, right from this page. (You'll be amazed how much it saves you.)

1 When can I collect up to $10,000.00?

Every time you go to the hospital you collect $100.00-a-week to a maximum of $10,000.000 cash. Not just once, but for every new confinement! And you collect cash not just for yourself, but for every covered member of your family — including spouse and children!

2 How can I collect up to $7,000.00 extra cash—if I'm over 65?

If you are over 65 we pay you $70.00-a-week extra cash in addition to Medicare. This is extra. You collect it for each illness or injury—each time you go to the hospital. Right up to $7,000.00 extra cash!

3 How can I collect up to $5,000.00 additional—for a registered nurse at home?

You collect an extra $100.00-a-week cash—up to $5,000.00—any time you have been in the hospital 3 days or more and your doctor tells you to employ a full-time registered nurse at home within 5 days after you leave the hospital. This money is extra. You get it on top of any other money we pay you.

4 When do I collect up to $2,000.00 extra cash for accidents?

We pay you $1,000.00 extra cash for complete accidental loss of one hand or one foot or sight of one eye, and $2,000.00 extra cash for loss of both hands or both feet or sight of both eyes—even if it happens as long as 3 months after the accident. This is all extra money. You collect it on top of any other benefits we pay you. Not just for yourself, but for every covered member of your family!

5 What if I am hospitalized by the same illness—again?

Don't worry. You still collect to the maximum of $10,000.00. And if you've already resumed full normal activities for just 90 days—we call it a "new confinement". Which means you can collect all over again, up to another $10,000.00!

6 If I collect more money than my medical bills cost—do I keep the extra cash?

You certainly do! We pay you $100.00 cash every week—even if your bills add up to just a fraction of that amount! So it's possible to come out of the hospital dollars ahead!

7 If I already have some health insurance—will you pay me anyway?

Of course! Never mind what you collect from Blue Cross, or Major Medical, or Workman's Compensation, or Medicare, or any other insurance you may have. (Even for the same illness!) We still pay you $100.00-a-week extra cash income to the maximum of $10,000.00 cash. So if other insurance has taken care of some — or even all — of your medical bills . . . you still have that extra cash income from Presidential. Maybe hundreds of dollars extra. Isn't that a nice way to end an illness?

8 Do you pay me cash even for my children too?

Yes! And not just once, but every time they go to the hospital too! Under the Family Plan you receive $50.00-a-week extra cash to a maximum of $5,000.00 for each eligible dependent child between the ages of 3 months and 19 years old.

9 Will "future" children be protected too?

They surely will! And at no extra cost. Under the Family Plan with Maternity you simply notify us when your "new addition" is 3 months old. We cover him or her (or them) automatically.

10 Will you pay me $100.00-a-week cash—even for pregnancy?

Yes, even for pregnancy! Other health plans DON'T cover pregnancy. But we do. Under the Family Plan with Maternity you collect $100.00-a-week to a maximum of $10,000.00 cash for each pregnancy, childbirth or miscarriage that results in a hospital stay when both parents have been enrolled in the plan for the entire period of pregnancy.

11 When does my estate collect an extra $1,000.00 accidental death benefit?

In case of accidental death to any covered member of your family—even if it happens as long as 3 months after the accident.

12 Why do you pay me higher cash benefits every year—without charging me a higher rate?

Because medical services cost more every year. So we feel you should be paid more every year. The first year we pay you $100.00-a-week. But the second year we increase that—automatically — to $103.00-a-week. The third year to $106.00-a-week. And so on, all the way up to a full $130-a-week the eleventh year and thereafter. That way your cash benefits rise to meet the rising cost of living. But the low premium you pay doesn't rise one penny (even though the price of everything else may be skyrocketing)!

13 Are there times I might collect even more than $10,000.00?

Yes,there are! If you and your spouse are both hospitalized. Or one of you goes more than once. Or even both of you more than once. Or if a child gets sick. Or someone has an accident—or whatever—you could very possibly collect not just up to $10,000.00 cash but as much as $20,000.00 . . . $30,000.00 . . . even $40,000.00 or more! We hope it never happens, of course, but isn't it reassuring to know you are fully protected if it does?

14 Can I spend my cash benefits any way I please?

Certainly! You can even put them in the bank as a "nest egg" for retirement. It's your money!

15 Does all cash come straight to me?

Yes, straight to you. NOT to the doctor or hospital. (Unless, of course, you ask us to.)

16 Must I pay taxes on the money you send me?

Certainly NOT! Every dollar is 100% tax-free.

17 Can I ever stop paying premiums—yet still remain fully covered?

Yes, indeed! All premiums that come due after you are in the hospital just 6 weeks or more . . . do not have to be paid! Not ever! We pay all premiums for you as long as you are hospitalized. You simply go right on collecting your full $100.00-a-week extra cash just as if you were paying the premiums yourself.

18 How can you give me so much—for so little?

Because you deal direct with the company — direct with Presidential itself! You virtually "write your own policy". Right off this page. No middleman needed! Costly "processing charges" are eliminated. So is "red tape". You do each simple step yourself — in your own home . . . in your own good time . . . by making up your own mind. And of course, dealing by mail is confidential. No one need know your personal affairs — except you!

19 Doesn't enrolling by mail take away the "personal" touch?

Certainly not! We give you more personal service, not less. But instead of getting it when you sign up — YOU GET IT WHEN YOU WANT TO MAKE A CLAIM! That's where it really means something. And that's where Presidential gives you plenty of service.

20 All right, now that you mention it—how do I go about making a claim?

As a Presidential policyowner you're entitled to contact FAST CLAIM HEADQUARTERS direct. From anywhere in the country! Entirely at our expense! No frantic attempts to locate your broker. No anxious waiting. If you have an accident or want to make a claim, don't hesitate—CONTACT US DIRECT! Even if you only have a question—CONTACT US DIRECT! Don't worry about "inconveniencing" or "annoying" anyone. WE ARE ALWAYS READY AND HAPPY TO GIVE YOU THE PROMPT, COURTEOUS AND DIRECT ATTENTION YOU ARE ENTITLED TO AS OUR POLICYOWNER!

21 How else do you save me money by cutting "red tape"?

No long complicated applications or embarrassing personal "investigations"! The short Enrollment Form on this page tells us all we need to know. Notice it doesn't ask for a medical examination. Or set an age limit (we don't care if you're over 100!). Most important, we enroll many persons simultaneously! Not one policy at a time, the old-fashioned way — but thousands at once. Using all the economies of mass printing and latest computer techniques. That's how we can give you so much for only 25¢.

22 Now tell me what's the "catch"—what doesn't my policy cover?

Get ready for a welcome surprise. Your policy covers absolutely EVERYTHING except conditions caused by (a) war or act of war; (b) mental disorders, alcohol and narcotics; (c) where care is in a government hospital; (d) pregnancy, except as provided under the maternity benefit provision; and (e) expenses resulting from any sickness or injury you had before the effective date of your protection—but even this "exclusion" is done away with after you've been a policyowner for two years. Everything else is definitely covered. (Item "e", by the way, is a real help if you already have a health problem. It means that even if you were sick before you took out this policy—yes, even if you are sick right now, today—you will still be covered for that condition after the policy has been in effect for 2 years.)

23 If I'm hospitalized less than a week—do you still pay in full?

Of course we do! Regardless of whether you are in the hospital for as little as one day — or as long as a week, month, year or more — you always collect the full amount you are entitled to!

24 Is there any "waiting period" before I can start collecting?

Sickness has no "waiting period"—so neither does Presidential! You start collecting as soon as you enter the hospital.

25 Will there be a "penalty" if I have too many claims?

No — positively not! Regardless of how many claims you make . . . or how much or how often you collect . . . your low rate will never be raised and your valuable protection will never be cancelled for any of these reasons.

26 What about "advancing age"—will I have to pay more?

Again — positively not! Even if you are age 100 we will not raise your rates. Nor will we cancel your protection because of age.

27 Why do I need this $100.00-a-week cash protection?

Because U.S. Government figures show that in the past few years alone . . . medical costs have TRIPLED! Yet few people have anywhere near enough protection to meet these soaring doctor and hospital bills. How much would a long hospital stay cost you? Or a loved one? How would you ever pay for costly X-rays, doctor bills, medicines and drugs not covered by your present insurance? Would you be able to afford the quiet and dignity of a private room and a private nurse? Or a telephone to keep in touch with loved ones. Or the rental of a TV set to help pass the lonely hours? And who would pay for rent, food, clothing, and household expenses — all the non-medical bills that keep coming in at home even though you are in the hospital without an income? Many folks have lost their life savings, their cars, even their homes trying to meet such expenses. And no one knows whose turn it will be next—yours or mine. But we both know that once the doctor says it is your turn to enter the hospital, it is too late to buy coverage at any price. That's why this special protection was designed to give you "extra help" you need — when you need it.

28 When may I apply for this protection?

The question is not "when may" but "when must". YOU ABSOLUTELY MUST APPLY BY THE DATE SHOWN ON THE ENROLLMENT FORM ON THIS PAGE. YOUR 25¢ AND COMPLETED FORM MUST BE POSTMARKED NO LATER THAN THAT DATE, OR IT CANNOT BE ACCEPTED.

29 Why do I have to apply before the deadline date?

Because, as explained in Question 21, we must receive your Enrollment Form the same time as all the others in order to give you the savings that come from processing many policies simultaneously. For this reason we simply cannot extend the date shown on the Enrollment Form.

30 When will my policy arrive?

Right away! We mail your policy as soon as we accept your Enrollment Form and 25¢. Examine it in the privacy of your own home. It's a very short document and you'll be pleasantly surprised to discover—THERE IS NO "FINE PRINT"! If you wish, show it to someone you trust—perhaps your lawyer, accountant or banker. Better still, show it to your own insurance man—even though he may very well be working for another insurance company. If he is a personal friend, he has your best interest at heart. So you can believe him when he tells you there is no better bargain available anywhere—at any price.

31 What if I change my mind—can I get my money back?

You certainly can! Even after you mail your Enrollment Form . . . even after you examine your policy in your own home and talk it over with anyone you wish . . . even after all this you are still free to change your mind. Simply return the policy within 15 days and your quarter will be refunded, at once. There will be no obligation whatever. Meanwhile all during the 15 days you are making up your mind, you will be protected by $100.00-a-week extra cash benefits from the effective date on the policy — even if you finally decide to return the policy and get your quarter back. But we don't think you'll want your quarter back. We think, instead, you'll want to continue your valuable protection at Presidential's amazing low rates. Just choose the Plan below that's best for you.

Plan I — Individual(s) Only Plan:
If you want to cover yourself — or yourself and one or more adult dependents (including your spouse) — then this is the Plan for you. Each person must be 18 or over, and shall pay (per person) the rate applicable to his or her age.

Age at Enrollment	Monthly Premium
18-39	only $3.95
40-49	only $4.95
50-59	only $5.95
60-74	only $6.95
75 and over	only $8.95

Plan II—Family Plan With Maternity
This plan is for the family that is still growing. To the total of the monthly premium for the adults to be insured, just add $5. This entitles you to all maternity benefits. It also covers all your unmarried, dependent children between the ages of 3 months and 19 years who live at home. Future dependent children will be covered when they reach 3 months of age and without any additional charge.

Plan III—Family Plan Without Maternity
This plan is for the family that is no longer growing. To the total of the monthly premium for the adults to be insured, just add $3. This covers all your unmarried, dependent children between the ages of 3 months and 19 years who live at home.

NOTE: The regular Monthly premium shown here (for your age at time of enrollment) is the same low premium you will continue to pay; it will not automatically increase as you pass from one age bracket to the next. Once you have enrolled, your rate can never be changed because of how much or how often you collect from us—or because of advanced age—but only if there is a general rate adjustment, up or down, on all policies of this type in your entire state.

32 How do I enroll?

If what you have read on this page makes good honest sense to you . . . if you find yourself agreeing with thousands of other Americans who welcome this sensible way to save money by "insuring themselves" — then by all means act on your own good instincts and mail the Enrollment Form with 25¢ now! Please act without delay. NO SALESMAN WILL CALL. And you'll have plenty of time after you mail the Enrollment Form to change your mind. (There's a money-back guarantee with no-obligation.) Please mail it NOW — because once accident or illness strikes — it's TOO LATE to buy protection at any price. Remember, the sooner you mail your Form, the sooner your protection will start. So act today—before anything unexpected happens.

Here are the questions you'd normally ask your insurance man. But we answered them instead . . . so you would be able to insure yourself, right from this page. (You'll be amazed how much it saves you.)

1 When can I collect up to $10,000.00?

Every time you go to the hospital you collect $100.00-a-week to a maximum of $10,000.000 cash. Not just once, but for every new confinement! And you collect cash not just for yourself, but for every covered member of your family — including spouse and children!

2 How can I collect up to $7,000.00 extra cash—if I'm over 65?

If you are over 65 we pay you $70.00-a-week extra cash in addition to Medicare. This is extra. You collect it for each illness or injury—each time you go to the hospital. Right up to $7,000.00 extra cash!

3 How can I collect up to $5,000.00 additional—for a registered nurse at home?

You collect an extra $100.00-a-week cash—up to $5,000.00—any time you have been in the hospital 3 days or more and your doctor tells you to employ a full-time registered nurse at home within 5 days after you leave the hospital. This money is extra. You get it on top of any other money we pay you.

4 When do I collect up to $2,000.00 extra cash for accidents?

We pay you $1,000.00 extra cash for complete accidental loss of one hand or one foot or sight of one eye, and $2,000.00 extra cash for loss of both hands or both feet or sight of both eyes—even if it happens as long as 3 months after the accident. This is all extra money. You collect it on top of any other benefits we pay you. Not just for yourself, but for every covered member of your family!

5 What if I am hospitalized by the same illness—again?

Don't worry. You still collect to the maximum of $10,000.00. And if you've already resumed full normal activities for just 90 days—we call it a "new confinement". Which means you can collect all over again, up to another $10,000.00!

6 If I collect more money than my medical bills cost—do I keep the extra cash?

You certainly do! We pay you $100.00 cash every week—even if your bills add up to just a fraction of that amount! So it's possible to come out of the hospital dollars ahead!

7 If I already have some health insurance—will you pay me anyway?

Of course! Never mind what you collect from Blue Cross, or Major Medical, or Workman's Compensation, or Medicare, or any other insurance you may have. (Even for the same illness!) We still pay you $100.00-a-week extra cash income to the maximum of $10,000.00 cash. So if other insurance has taken care of some — or even all — of your medical bills . . . you still have that extra cash income from Presidential. Maybe hundreds of dollars extra. Isn't that a nice way to end an illness?

8 Do you pay me cash even for my children too?

Yes! And not just once, but every time they go to the hospital too! Under the Family Plan you receive $50.00-a-week extra cash to a maximum of $5,000.00 for each eligible dependent child between the ages of 3 months and 19 years old.

9 Will "future" children be protected too?

They surely will! And at no extra cost. Under the Family Plan with Maternity you simply notify us when your "new addition" is 3 months old. We cover him or her (or them) automatically.

10 Will you pay me $100.00-a-week cash—even for pregnancy?

Yes, even for pregnancy! Other health plans DON'T cover pregnancy. But we do. Under the Family Plan with Maternity you collect $100.00-a-week to a maximum of $10,000.00 cash for each pregnancy, childbirth or miscarriage that results in a hospital stay when both parents have been enrolled in the plan for the entire period of pregnancy.

11 When does my estate collect an extra $1,000.00 accidental death benefit?

In case of accidental death to any covered member of your family—even if it happens as long as 3 months after the accident.

12 Why do you pay me higher cash benefits every year—without charging me a higher rate?

Because medical services cost more every year. So we feel you should be paid more every year. The first year we pay you $100.00-a-week. But the second year we increase that—automatically — to $103.00-a-week. The third year to $106.00-a-week. And so on, all the way up to a full $130-a-week the eleventh year and thereafter. That way your cash benefits rise to meet the rising cost of living. But the low premium you pay doesn't rise one penny (even though the price of everything else may be skyrocketing)!

13 Are there times I might collect even more than $10,000.00?

Yes,there are! If you and your spouse are both hospitalized. Or one of you goes more than once. Or even both of you more than once. Or if a child gets sick. Or someone has an accident — or whatever — you could very possibly collect not just up to $10,000.00 cash but as much as $20,000.00 . . . $30,000.00 . . . even $40,000.00 or more! We hope it never happens, of course, but isn't it reassuring to know you are fully protected if it does?

14 Can I spend my cash benefits any way I please?

Certainly! You can even put them in the bank as a "nest egg" for retirement. It's your money!

15 Does all cash come straight to me?

Yes, straight to you. NOT to the doctor or hospital. (Unless, of course, you ask us to.)

16 Must I pay taxes on the money you send me?

Certainly NOT! Every dollar is 100% tax-free.

17 Can I ever stop paying premiums—yet still remain fully covered?

Yes, indeed! All premiums that come due after you are in the hospital just 6 weeks or more . . . do not have to be paid! Not ever! We pay all premiums for you as long as you are hospitalized. You simply go right on collecting your full $100.00-a-week extra cash just as if you were paying the premiums yourself.

18 How can you give me so much—for so little?

Because you deal direct with the company — direct with Presidential itself! You virtually "write your own policy". Right off this page. No middleman needed! Costly "processing charges" are eliminated. So is "red tape". You do each simple step yourself — in your own home . . . in your own good time . . . by making up your own mind. And of course, dealing by mail is confidential. No one need know your personal affairs — except you!

19 Doesn't enrolling by mail take away the "personal" touch?

Certainly not! We give you more personal service, not less. But instead of getting it when you sign up — YOU GET IT WHEN YOU WANT TO MAKE A CLAIM! That's where it really means something. And that's where Presidential gives you plenty of service.

20 All right, now that you mention it—how do I go about making a claim?

As a Presidential policyowner you're entitled to contact FAST CLAIM HEADQUARTERS direct. From anywhere in the country! Entirely at our expense! No frantic attempts to locate your broker. No anxious waiting. If you have an accident or want to make a claim, don't hesitate—CONTACT US DIRECT! Even if you only have a question—CONTACT US DIRECT! Don't worry about "inconveniencing" or "annoying" anyone. WE ARE ALWAYS READY AND HAPPY TO GIVE YOU THE PROMPT, COURTEOUS AND DIRECT ATTENTION YOU ARE ENTITLED TO AS OUR POLICYOWNER!

21 How else do you save me money by cutting "red tape"?

No long complicated applications or embarrassing personal "investigations"! The short Enrollment Form on this page tells us all we need to know. Notice it doesn't ask for a medical examination. Or set an age limit (we don't care if you're over 100!). Most important, we enroll many persons simultaneously! Not one policy at a time, the old-fashioned way — but thousands at once. Using all the economies of mass printing and latest computer techniques. That's how we can give you so much for only 25¢.

22 Now tell me what's the "catch"—what doesn't my policy cover?

Get ready for a welcome surprise. Your policy covers absolutely EVERYTHING except conditions caused by (a) war or act of war; (b) mental disorders, alcohol and narcotics; (c) where care is in a government hospital; (d) pregnancy, except as provided under the maternity benefit provision; and (e) expenses resulting from any sickness or injury you had before the effective date of your protection—but even this "exclusion" is done away with after you've been a policyowner for two years. Everything else is definitely covered. (Item "e", by the way, is a real help if you already have a health problem. It means that even if you were sick before you took out this policy—yes, even if you are sick right now, today—you will still be covered for that condition after the policy has been in effect for 2 years.)

23 If I'm hospitalized less than a week—do you still pay in full?

Of course we do! Regardless of whether you are in the hospital for as little as one day — or as long as a week, month, year or more — you always collect the full amount you are entitled to!

24 Is there any "waiting period" before I can start collecting?

Sickness has no "waiting period"—so neither does Presidential! You start collecting as soon as you enter the hospital.

25 Will there be a "penalty" if I have too many claims?

No — positively not! Regardless of how many claims you make . . . or how much or how often you collect . . . your low rate will never be raised and your valuable protection will never be cancelled for any of these reasons.

26 What about "advancing age"—will I have to pay more?

Again — positively not! Even if you are age 100 we will not raise your rates. Nor will we cancel your protection because of age.

27 Why do I need this $100.00-a-week cash protection?

Because U.S. Government figures show that in the past few years alone . . . medical costs have TRIPLED! Yet few people have anywhere near enough protection to meet these soaring doctor and hospital bills. How much would a long hospital stay cost you? Or a loved one? How would you ever pay for costly X-rays, doctor bills, medicines and drugs not covered by your present insurance? Would you be able to afford the quiet and dignity of a private room and a private nurse? Or a telephone to keep in touch with loved ones. Or the rental of a TV set to help pass the lonely hours? And who would pay for rent, food, clothing, and household expenses — all the non-medical bills that keep coming in at home even though you are in the hospital without an income? Many folks have lost their life savings, their cars, even their homes trying to meet such expenses. And no one knows whose turn it will be next—yours or mine. But we both know that once the doctor says it is your turn to enter the hospital, it is too late to buy coverage at any price. That's why this special protection was designed to give you "extra help" you need — when you need it.

28 When may I apply for this protection?

The question is not "when may" but "when must". YOU ABSOLUTELY MUST APPLY BY THE DATE SHOWN ON THE ENROLLMENT FORM ON THIS PAGE. YOUR 25¢ AND COMPLETED FORM MUST BE POSTMARKED NO LATER THAN THAT DATE. OR IT CANNOT BE ACCEPTED.

29 Why do I have to apply before the deadline date?

Because, as explained in Question 21, we must receive your Enrollment Form the same time as all the others in order to give you the savings that come from processing many policies simultaneously. For this reason we simply cannot extend the date shown on the Enrollment Form.

30 When will my policy arrive?

Right away! We mail your policy as soon as we accept your Enrollment Form and 25¢. Examine it in the privacy of your own home. It's a very short document and you'll be pleasantly surprised to discover—THERE IS NO "FINE PRINT"! If you wish, show it to someone you trust—perhaps your lawyer, accountant or banker. Better still, show it to your own insurance man—even though he may very well be working for another insurance company. If he is a personal friend, he has your best interest at heart. So you can believe him when he tells you there is no better bargain available anywhere—at any price.

31 What if I change my mind—can I get my money back?

You certainly can! Even after you mail your Enrollment Form . . . even after you examine your policy in your own home and talk it over with anyone you wish . . . even after all this you are still free to change your mind. Simply return the policy within 15 days and your quarter will be refunded, at once. There will be no obligation whatever. Meanwhile all during the 15 days you are making up your mind, you will be protected by $100.00-a-week extra cash benefits from the effective date on the policy — even if you finally decide to return the policy and get your quarter back. But we don't think you'll want your quarter back. We think, instead, you'll want to continue your valuable protection at Presidential's amazing low rates. Just choose the Plan below that's best for you.

Plan I — Individual(s) Only Plan:
If you want to cover yourself — or yourself and one or more adult dependents (including your spouse) — then this is the Plan for you. Each person must be 18 or over, and shall pay (per person) the rate applicable to his or her age.

Age at Enrollment	Monthly Premium
18-39	only $3.95
40-49	only $4.95
50-59	only $5.95
60-74	only $6.95
75 and over	only $8.95

Plan II—Family Plan With Maternity
This plan is for the family that is still growing. To the total of the monthly premium for the adults to be insured, just add $5. This entitles you to all maternity benefits. It also covers all your unmarried, dependent children between the ages of 3 months and 19 years who live at home. Future dependent children will be covered when they reach 3 months of age and without any additional charge.

Plan III—Family Plan Without Maternity
This plan is for the family that is no longer growing. To the total of the monthly premium for the adults to be insured, just add $3. This covers all your unmarried, dependent children between the ages of 3 months and 19 years who live at home.

NOTE: The regular Monthly premium shown here (for your age at time of enrollment) is the same low premium you will continue to pay; it will not automatically increase as you pass from one age bracket to the next. Once you have enrolled, your rate can never be changed because of how much or how often you collect from us—or because of advanced age—but only if there is a general rate adjustment, up or down, on all policies of this type in your entire state.

32 How do I enroll?

If what you have read on this page makes good honest sense to you . . . if you find yourself agreeing with thousands of other Americans who welcome this sensible way to save money by "insuring themselves" — then by all means act on your own good instincts and mail the Enrollment Form with 25¢ now! Please act without delay. NO SALESMAN WILL CALL. And you'll have plenty of time after you mail the Enrollment Form to change your mind. (There's a money-back guarantee with no-obligation.) Please mail it NOW — because once accident or illness strikes — it's TOO LATE to buy protection at any price. Remember, the sooner you mail your Form, the sooner your protection will start. So act today—before anything unexpected happens.
